O'Brien Stumps For Democrats In Wisconsin

Talks at Dedication Of Post Offices In Neenah, Menasha

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Postmaster General Lawrence F. O'Brien, President Lyndon Johnson's No. 1 political strategist, carried a bagful of praise for Wisconsin Democratic candidates Sunday night as he opened a two-day campaign in behalf of party hopefuls.

O'Brien gave special delivery treatment to the candidacy of Lt. Gov. Patrick J. Lucey at a $50 a plate testimonial dinner in support of the candidate for governor and drew heavily on the name of the late President John F. Kennedy.

O'Brien, the only member of Kennedy's "Irish Mafia" still serving in a high administration post, returned again and again to the late President. He told how they stumped Wisconsin's frigid northland together in the 1960 primary campaign. And he told how few and far between the voters were in the state's thinly-populated 10th District.

But Kennedy, he said, wasn't discouraged easily, "and he found many reasons for his fondness for this state and its people. One of the main reasons was how deeply he was impressed with the caliber of the man we are honoring here tonight."

Johnson Too President Kennedy was not alone in recognizing that ability," he said. "President Johnson, who called Pat Lucey to Washington after his primary victory in September, told me afterwards how impressed he was with your lieutenant governor."

U.S. Ambassador Arrested in Guinea

McIlvaine, Airline Official Held in Diplomatic Retaliation

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government of Guinea held newly arrived American Ambassador Robinson McIlvaine under house arrest today despite strong U. S. protests.

The State Department said McIlvaine and an unidentified Pan American Airways official were detained Sunday in apparent retaliation for the arrest in

Americans Flee Prison in Brazil

By JACK DONOVAN RICHARDSON, Tex. (AP) — A fabulous diamond called the 007, and a South American general's aborted political power play are part of a story told by a Texas pilot who mysteriously fled a Brazilian prison with two American companions.

Joseph A. Truhill, 47, of the Dallas suburb of Richardson, said that he and Joseph McCutcheon, 36, and Sam Sexton Jr., 41, both of Fort Smith, Ark., were convicted on smuggling charges trumped up by Gen. Rio Grandino Kruei, former chief of Brazil's federal security police.

"We were framed on charges in which Gen. Kruei wanted to make a name for himself," Truhill said Sunday at a news conference. "He wanted control of the mining industries and the customs offices."

The three Americans appeared at the U.S. Customs station in Brownsville, Tex., Saturday after nearly nine months of detention at Brasilia, capital city of Brazil.

Truhill would not discuss details of the escape, saying only that it was engineered by the three prisoners and Mrs. Truhill, a trim, brunette pilot who once trained in vain to become a woman astronaut.

Brazilian authorities said the prisoners fled after being allowed to visit Brasilia last Thursday.

In Fort Smith, Sexton said the trio took a taxicab 150 miles to an unnamed airfield and boarded a plane piloted by a Texas businessman and manufacturer, whom he did not identify.

Truhill, saying the plane was

Macabre Halloween Tale

BY ANNE SMITH

KEY WEST, Fla. (AP) — One of the eeriest of Halloween happenings in the United States began here — in the nation's southernmost city — 35 years ago. The mystery lingers on.

It was a chilly end of October night when beautiful Elena Hoyos, 22, died of tuberculosis. The torture she had felt in life was gone, but even in death her body would not rest in peace.

As Elena died, a friend named Bienvenido Perez marched in a Halloween parade in a devil costume Elena had made for him.

Suspicion Right Minutes later he was pounding at her door. "Something told me she was dying and I rushed to her house," Perez said. His suspicion was right.

One of the mourners at Elena's funeral was German-born Karl Von Cosel, a man in his 60s who was a technician at the Marine Hospital. He held a deep admiration for the girl.

He painted her name on the side of his airplane after the funeral. Perez visited Von Cosel a few days later. Inside the plane, propped up in a chair, was Elena's body. Perez, ordered away by Von Cosel, raced to the home of Elena's sister, Florida Lachina Medina.

Believed to be Wax Mrs. Lachina Medina didn't believe Von Cosel had her sister's body. She told Perez it was only a wax replica.

The macabre events quieted for a while. But eight years later Von Cosel had built a shack in the brush near 17th and Flager Ave. Perez, who had been elected constable, received word from undertaker Ben Lopez to take a look.

Inside, he said, he found Elena's body.

A young attorney, Enrique Esquineldo Jr., became interested in the case. He said Mrs. Lachina Medina had been to see him and spoke of a fear she felt every time she visited her sister's crypt.

"Here With Me" She had been to see Von Cosel, too. "Don't worry," she said he told her. "Your sister is all right. I have her here with me."

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Vietnamese officials today announced a sharp rise in Viet Cong desertions to the South Vietnamese side. They reported 2,062 defections from the Communist cause in October, the third highest month this year.

The announcement came on the eve of South Viet Nam's National Day which will be celebrated with a big parade that will include 500 former Viet Cong in the line of march.

The war itself lapsed back into a lull after sharp weekend clashes. Only small ground actions were reported and monsoon rains again reduced U.S. air raids over North Viet Nam.

Cargo Plane Downed Viet Cong guerrillas shot down a U.S. C123 cargo plane today in the dense jungles of the "iron triangle" 23 miles northwest of Saigon. The plane's three-man crew was rescued unharmed by Air Force helicopters.

B52 bombers from Guam made two raids Sunday night over South Viet Nam.

One wave of the bombers struck for the second straight day in the central highlands near the Cambodian border. The bombers hit at suspected base camps and staging areas of the North Vietnamese regulars who launched five assaults Saturday against units of the U.S. 4th Infantry Division and then vanished in the elephant grass and jungle growth. The raid was in support of Operation

Paul Revere 4, taking place 43 miles southwest of Kontum City. The other B52s raided Communist troop concentrations 20 miles west of Quang Ngai City near the central coast.

Ho Repeats Stand In Hanoi, President Ho Chi Minh repeated that North Viet Nam will continue to fight until its peace terms are met. Hanoi's official news agency said Ho reiterated his stand in a recent interview for a French publication.

In Saigon, South Viet Nam's military rulers headed by Premier Nguyen Cao Ky formally opened Independence Palace as the nation's seat of government.

The palace was built for the French governors general of Indochina and has been in the process of being remodeled since planes bombed it in an attempt to kill President Ngo Dinh Diem.

Third Anniversary The National Day celebration Tuesday marks the third anniversary of Diem's overthrow, the date from which the present government dates the birth of the republic.

The October figure of 2,062 defections was exceeded this year in March, when 2,236 Viet Cong desertions were reported, and in February, when the figure was 2,032.

Officials offered no immediate explanation for the October rise in Communist defections which in the past has fluctuated by seasons.

U.S. fighter-bombers flew 51 bombing missions over North Viet Nam Sunday, about one-third the usual number because of continuing poor weather.

North Vietnamese regulars who made a fierce weekend assault on untried U.S. soldiers of the 4th Division slipped away into dense jungles of the central highlands but left behind 49 of their dead.

Los Angeles (AP) — Jacob Susselman told police he was in his car waiting for a traffic light to change Sunday when a man wearing a sheet as a toga and blue and white paint on his face speared him in the arm with a six-foot lance.

The painted man then retrieved his lance and disappeared, Susselman said.

A few minutes later officers booked Alvin Paul Ingram, 22, of West Hollywood, on suspicion of assault with a deadly weapon.

It Started as a Decorous Austrian clock scene, above, and wound up in slapstick, below. The biennial 'Harvest Home' party at Riverview Country Club is meant to provide fun and hearty laughter for the audience, and usually succeeds in doing the same for the performers. At right, Dr. Earl Fetting, Mrs. William Henderson and Mrs. Fetting participate in a 'Mary Poppins' skit.

'Harvest Home' Takes to Automation

Every two years Riverview Country Club members go dramatic — with results that are usually hilarious. The 'Harvest Home' party this year was based on a computer theme, with programs made of computer punch cards and acts announced by a talking computer which whirled, beeped and lit up as it told the next performer.

Mr. and Mrs. James Grist were chairmen of this year's party, presented Wednesday and Thursday evening at the club. During the summer Mr. Grist filmed club golfers on the course and edited the film, run at fast speed, for between-scene Charlie Flashbacks.

Club Chorus
A chorus formed the background for skits, which included songs by Mrs. Earl Fetting in a 'Barbra Streisand' role; a 'Get Smart' skit; a mannequin skit to the music of 'Real Live Girl'; a banjo band; a Mary Poppins skit, and an Austrian clock scene.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Orison were stage managers; Sherman Frinak had charge of scenery, props and technical; James Grist and Joseph Foley, lights, sound and movies; Mrs. Foley, costumes; Mrs. Charles Henderson, makeup; Mrs. Fred T. Hennrich, dinner and decorations; Dr. and Mrs. George Behnke, cast party; Mrs. Chriss Larsen, programs; Mrs. Kenneth Kloebe, parody opening and closing chorus; and Ben Schneider, computer dialogue and voice.

Otto Bytof congratulated James Grist at the end of the show Wednesday evening. The Riverview program was presented two nights for members, with other members performing. (Post-Crescent Photos)

Now a full strength anti-perspirant for people who perspire too much!

Amazing new Super-Dry is specially made for the one in 3 who needs anti-perspirant protection most!

Reports prove Super-Dry! At last, there is an anti-perspirant deodorant so powerful it works even for those who perspire too much, yet is gentle to normal skin and clothing — new Super-Dry! Extensive consumer reports show that Super-Dry keeps underarms bone dry. Even for people who perspire too freely, in case after case.

Raves from grateful users: "I have used Super-Dry for two years and find it more effective than anything I ever used. It curtails underarm perspiration — saves my clothes and gives me 100% protection. It is a joy to use — knowing I'm safe from embarrassing moisture," says Mrs. M. M. Martin, Brooklyn, N. Y. — "Super-Dry is marvelous and to date is the only anti-perspirant I found that works for me. I have a real perspiration problem especially in crowds or when I'm nervous," says Mrs. E. M. Olson, Columbus, Neb. — "Super-Dry is the best. Even though I'm very active and need a good deodorant-antiperspirant, it does the job. I never found anything before that took care of both for me," says Mr. J. L. Moore, Wayne, N. J.

What makes Super-Dry so amazingly effective? A unique formula that actually controls the flow of perspiration, plus an exclusive surface active ingredient for complete coverage. Thus, the entire underarm area gets active protection against both moisture and odor. Enjoy new peace of mind — get new Ever-Dry Super-Dry today!

Church Women Set Fall Festival Plans

KAUKAUNA — The Women's cake, pie, ice cream, coffee and Aid Society of Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church will hold a fall festival in the school hall beginning at 11 a. m. Thursday. Mrs. Clifford Beahm and Mrs. Milo Gosdeck are co-chairmen of the event.

The menu will include chicken booyah, Spanish hamburger,

Mrs. Ewald Ring and Mrs. Martha Gast will have charge of coffee, and Mrs. Harold Hildebrandt and Mrs. Arthur Freier, cakes and pies. Dining room co-chairmen will be Mrs. William Scheffelbein and Mrs. Fred Mason. Mrs. Herbert Specht, Mrs. Otto Hass and Mrs. Fred Henslin will have charge of the fancy work booth, and Mrs. Otto Tretun and Mrs. Paul Robel, baked goods.

Candy sales will be under the direction of Mrs. Harry Treptow and Mrs. Earl Thiel. Mrs. August Sasnowski and Mrs. Elmer Schubring will have charge of the ice cream booth. Mrs. Emmett Wierschke and Mrs. Merlin Fenske, hamburgers, and Mrs. Arthur Lemke and Mrs. Theodore Kuhn, glasses and silverware.

Newcomers Set Hard Times Party Theme

Members of the Welcome Wagon Newcomers Club will wear hard-times costumes at their 6:30 p. m. Friday couples' party at the 41 Bowl. The theme is "Hard Times Harvest."

Members have been asked to bring used toys in good condition for the Golden Age Club Christmas toy sale. Entertainment is planned.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Goulet have charge of the event, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Allan Gluth, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Perlewitz, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Casey, Dr. and Mrs. Delton Christensen, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mack and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Lachmann.

Mrs. Lester Helser, above, pages through one of the books she selected at the book sale sponsored by the Appleton AAUW at the Masonic Temple Thursday and Friday. A vast selection of reading material was available to customers.

WCOF to Hear Nicaraguan Missionary

The public has been invited to hear the Rev. Delbert Will, O. F. M. Cap., speak on "Challenge of the Missions" at 8 p. m. Thursday, when the Women's Catholic Order of Foresters meets in the Christian Mothers room at St. Mary Catholic School.

Father Will, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Will, 1037 W. Spencer St., is on leave from Bluefields, Nicaragua, where he is a missionary. Mrs. George Koehler has charge of the event.

Reading for a Long Winter

Pile of books, stacks of magazines and collection of phonograph records transformed the Masonic Temple into a temporary book store Thursday and Friday when the Appleton AAUW sponsored its annual used Book Sale.

An added feature this year was the sale of pictures from the Lawrence University Art Rental Collection. Many of the pictures have been in the collection since 1925.

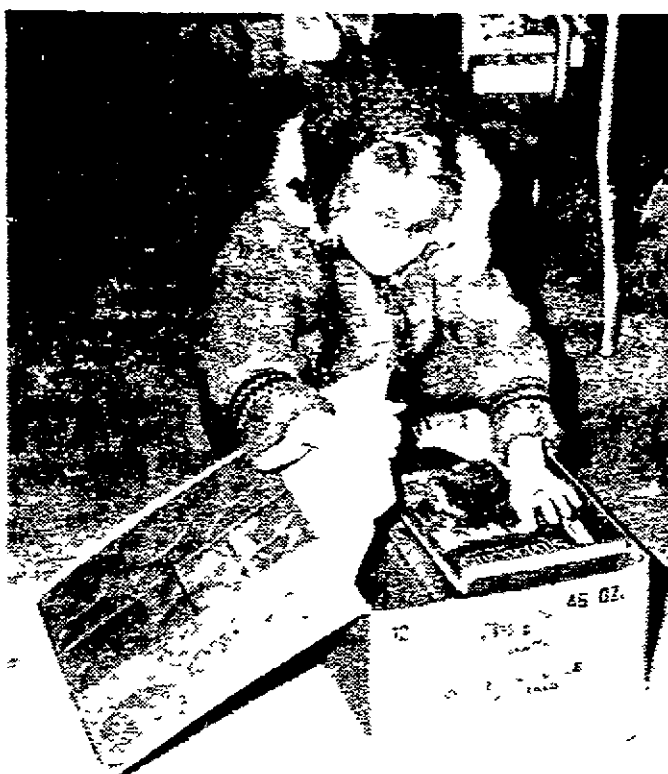

Proceeds will be used for graduate fellowships and scholarships to be awarded to outstanding women in the U. S. and other countries. The group also contributes to a scholarship fund for Lawrence University upperclass women.

Lawrence will benefit from the sale of the pictures from the art collection.

Chairmen for the event were Mrs. William Yerkes and Mrs. Leonard Russe.

Mrs. Douglas Wight, Menasha above, was one of many shoppers at the annual sale. With a cardboard box substituting for a shopping bag, she chooses from donated records and books. At left, Dawn Orbison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Orbison, studies an interesting book she found among the many paperbacks, novels, magazines and reference books sold by the AAUW. # Your Problems Wife Defends Husbands Odd Choice of Sleeping Attire

BY ANN LANDERS

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I birthday last April but he didn't because he'd rather work than like it and went right back to my nighties. When I suggested to a few women friends that they ask him a man's nightshirt for his birthday last April but he didn't because he'd rather work than like it and went right back to my nighties.

This little item gave me the courage to write to you about something that has been bothering me for a long time. My husband likes to sleep in my nightgowns. Before you get any crazy notions I want to make it perfectly clear he is normal in every way. We have two children and get along fine together. There is nothing funny about this guy. He just likes the feel of a silky fabric and the looseness of a nightie. I bought him a man's nightshirt for his birthday last April but he didn't because he'd rather work than like it and went right back to my nighties. When I suggested to a few women friends that they ask him a man's nightshirt for his birthday last April but he didn't because he'd rather work than like it and went right back to my nighties.

Rick is always picking on me about something. Either I'm too heavy, or his shirts don't look right or I am making his mind stagnant because I can't discuss current events with him. Current events are depressing these days and I have so many problems of my own that I don't want to read about anybody else's.

Can this marriage be saved or am I going to be just another divorcee at age 21? — S. W. W.

Dear S. W. W.: Kids who get married too young, as you did, find after the glamor wears off that there's more to making a life together than teen-age kicks. Now that you know marriage is not one glorious dream, but rather the difficult business of living with another person, you'd better grow up and accept your role as a real person in a real world. Counseling might be very helpful. The Y.M.C.A. has a superb counseling program. Get going — and good luck. You'll need it.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope. (Copyright, 1966)

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Rick (fake name) and I have been married for four years. We have a son three years old. Don't tell me the reason we are having trouble is because we were married too young. I realize that, but it's too late to p.m. to 1 a.m. at Germania do anything about it now. I was 16 and Rick was 18. Our folks tried to persuade us to wait, but Mrs. Clarence Evensen, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Shandonay and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Blank, all money is not a problem any more. Rick has a good job and Chester Fenske, Fremont.

Kay Catlin Married to Mr. Hoier

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Catlin Jr., 1614 S. Connell St., have announced the marriage of their daughter, Kay, to Stephen Brown Hoier, son of Mrs. Donald F. Hoier, New London. The ceremony was performed Oct. 22 at First Congregational Church. The Rev. Edward Dahl officiated.

The bride's sister, Dianne, served as maid of honor and James Krostue, New London, was best man.

The bride attended the University of Wisconsin and Wisconsin State University-Oshkosh. Mr. Hoier is a student at Drake University, Des Moines, Iowa.

The couple will be honored at a 2 p.m. reception Nov. 26 at Bute des Mors Golf Club.

Electric Blankets Laundered at Home

The most effective way — and the only approved way — to keep an electric blanket clean is by laundering it in home-type equipment.

If the blanket is dryer-dried, remove it while still slightly damp and drape it over a line to finish drying. This eliminates possible shrinkage and helps to retain its soft feel and surface nap.

Two Sets of Twins were in the wedding party when Miss Eileen Brownell became the bride of Dennis Peterson Saturday. The bride's twin sister, Irene, was her maid of honor, and the bridegroom's twin cousins, Jill and Joy Johansen, daughters of the Leslie Johansens, Appleton, served as miniature brides. # Kaukauna Assured Of Aid for Sewage Treatment Plant

Still Unofficial, but City Can Expect Federal Help on Project

KAUKAUNA — City officials have received unofficial assurance that federal aid would be available to help finance construction of a sewage disposal plant which would provide primary and secondary sewage treatment as ordered by the State Department of Resource Development.

A federal aid request amounting to 30 per cent of the total anticipated $700,000 construction cost was made at an informal meeting at Madison of Arlin Christensen, deputy attorney general; Theodore Wisniewski, director of the water pollution control for the Department of Resource Development; Mayor Gilbert Anderson; City Atty. Donald Green, and Aids. William Rogers and Richard Helf.

The Madison meeting was arranged to permit the city to provide the state with information on the sewage disposal situation after the state had threatened to bring suit for failure to comply with orders. Green reviewed the history of the sewage plant project and explained that the city had floated a $500,000 bond issue, with which to start construction and said assurance of federal aid to complete the project is needed.

Plans Approved

William White, representative of Donohue Engineering, Sheboygan, designers of the proposed plant, explained the groundwork already covered in planning the plant and said state approval of plans has already been received.

Following the presentations, Wisniewski indicated the city could expect to receive about 10 per cent of the total construction cost, or $70,000, soon, with the remaining 20 per cent to be given priority as more federal aids became available to the department.

Prior to receiving the $70,000, the grant must be approved by a board of the Department of Resource Development and approved by the common council and federal government. If the grant is approved by all agencies, it is expected the city would be ready to advertise for bids for start of construction within a month.

Advertising for bids would take about a month, thus actual construction would probably get underway early in 1967. Green appeared before representatives of the League of Municipalities Thursday to explain the position of the city in regard to the sewage plant problem and to gain league support in aiding the city to receive federal grants designed to help reduce the pollution problem in the Fox River.

Scolding Locks To Expand Plant

Permit Issued for $120,000 Building; Construction Started

A permit for a $120,000 building expansion project at Scolding Locks Corp., 1520 W. Rogers St., was issued today by the department of inspections.

The firm is one of the country's leading manufacturers of hairpins and bobby pins.

The one-story building, which will expand manufacturing and storage facilities, will measure 204 by 117 feet.

Acquired Firm

Work has already been started by the Boldt Construction Co., Appleton.

Recently, Scolding locks acquired a Buffalo, N. Y. firm.

Construction of a four-room addition to the nuns' residence next to Xavier High school also was started when a permit was issued to Lauer Brothers Construction Co. Estimated cost of the project is $13,000.

The New Memorial Presbyterian Church was dedicated Sunday at a special service. Participating in the afternoon ceremonies were, from left, Dr. John Bouauet, pastor, First Presbyterian Church, Neenah, who brought greetings from the synod; the Rev. Clifford Pierson, pastor; and the Rev. William Hillegonds, Holland, Mich., guest speaker. The $400,000 building is situated at the corner of Meade Street and College Avenue. (Post-Crescent Photo)

Commission Again Denies Plat Okay

Appleton Follows State Position In Action on Planned Subdivision

For the second time this month, the Appleton Plan Commission refused to approve the preliminary Parkway Terrace Plat in the Town of Grand Chute northeast of the city.

The commission today took the position that as long as the Wisconsin Board of Health indicated disapproval, the city would do likewise until the property owner took steps to comply with state requirements.

Being disputed is the admitted fact that three lots in the subdivision are considerably lower than the others. It is contended they pose a drainage problem for the area. The immediate solution would be for the owner to fill in the area and comply with the state order.

Intends to Fill

However, the owner says he intends to fill in the lots as the rest of the subdivision is sold checking to see whether other off and developed for residential purposes.

The city is involved because it is exercising its extra-territorial zoning rights. City officials fear approval of the plat, as is, will ultimately result in a drainage problem which might eventually pose problems for Appleton expansion.

Withholds Action

The plan commission said it would withhold action on approving the plat until Rasmussen reported his findings.

In other action, the commission: —Reviewed terms of the proposed purchase of 34 lots in the Park Hills plat south of the city for the Tri-County Expressway, but took no action.

—Heard a report the city is checking to see whether other communities in the region are starting to make land purchases for the right-of-way for the future expressway.

—Received notice the Association of Wisconsin Planners is holding a workshop on low income housing for the elderly at Fond du Lac the night of Nov. 3.

Junior High Proposed

A junior high school, which would alleviate the crowded conditions in some of the elementary schools and would make it possible for all of them to have the first six grades, was proposed by Scholtz.

The junior high could be constructed on the Xavier plot and the whole city could share the facilities as well as the

Wolf Planners Seek Aid for Area Program

An application to undertake a comprehensive area planning program for the development of community water and sewer systems has been filed with the Farmers Home Administration (FHA), according to an announcement by officials of the Wolf River Basin Regional Planning Commission.

The commission's eight member counties approved the program recently by passing resolutions to finance 15 per cent of the $276,000 program. The remaining 85 per cent is being requested of the FHA.

Commission officials hope to receive an answer to the initial application within the next 60 to 90 days. Completion of the plan, if approved by the FHA, will take about 30 months.

Advise Negotiations On YMCA Property

Kagen Critical Of Action on Post Office

Claims Byrnes Failed Appleton Leaders in Seeking Information

Dr. Marvin Kagen today challenged his congressional opponent, Rep. John Byrnes, to "explain why the city of Appleton had to go to Sen. Gaylord Nelson to get a new post office."

"Voters of this area," Dr. Kagen said, "have a right to know why their congressional representative was unable to help civic leaders here replace a postal facility obviously inadequate for our growing needs."

Speaking at a reception in his honor at the home of Mrs. Eugene P. Vandenhuevel, 1022 W. Oklahoma St., the Appleton physician said:

Routine Approval

"The failure of my opponent to win what amounted to routine approval for a new postal facility here serves as indisputable evidence to his ineffectiveness as a congressional representative."

"I have been informed by Sen. Nelson that postal officials in Washington had for quite some time been aware of the critical nature of our need for a new post office."

"These officials were unable to act on repeated requests by Appleton officials because funding for the project depended on department approval of a com-

Appleton Planners Refuse to Waive City's Claim to Strip of Land Near Library

The city should negotiate an equitable land transaction with the YMCA about 10 years ago, the Appleton YMCA before the plan commission was advised today, as it referred the entire matter to the board of public works and its sub-committee on land negotiation and acquisition.

The commission failed to take action on a request by the YMCA to waive rights to the property so it could go to the exchange.

Offer Unacceptable

Aldermen felt the offer, as submitted by the YMCA, was unacceptable.

Outlines Offer

J. E. Warrick, the YMCA's general secretary, appeared before the commission and outlined the offer made to the city. In return for getting the 70 by 31-foot corridor of property adjacent to the old YMCA building, Warrick said the YMCA would agree to sell the city a portion of land at the northwest corner of Oneida and Lawrence Streets for $7 a square foot.

Warrick indicated the YMCA felt the 70 by 30 foot strip should go to the "Y" instead of the city.

However, City Atty. David Geenen said he had studied all the legal documents and disagreed. It was his opinion the unoccupied property would revert back to the city.

Warrick said the YMCA paid the city $4,000 for the land about 10 years ago and held the title to the property. However, Geenen said the reversionary clause made the difference, citing that the city cooperated Riverview Lane.

Tract of Land In Grand Chute Offered to City

34.5 Acres Formerly $85,000, Now for Sale at $100,000

An offer to sell 34.5 acres of land to the city for $110,000 for use as an industrial area, future school site, park or recreation area was received today by the plan commission.

The commission referred the offer to the board of public works to see if the city would be interested in acquiring the land on S Bluemound Drive in the Town of Grand Chute, contiguous to the city's industrial park.

Joseph J. Engel, representing a local firm, submitted the offer and outlined the possible land uses.

"I think it would be a good thing for the city to get this property so its boundaries will then extend all the way out to Bluemound Drive," Engel said.

Offered 6 Years Ago
Acting Public Works Director Donald Bengs said it was the same area which was offered the city about six years ago or so for about $85,000. He said at the time the city was interested in acquiring the property.

An aerial view of the 34.5-acre tract showed a wide ravine passing through the property.

City Planner Walter Rasmussen said some problems could arise in servicing the property, noting that a portion would be in the town's sanitary sewer district while the remainder would have city services.

Rasmussen suggested the owner annex the land to the city before attempting to sell it. Engel said his client at this Fox River, south of Spencer time was only interested in selling the property.

The tract lies on Bluemound Drive and then extends easterly to Lilas Street and the city's present corporate limits.

Persistent Burglar Hits Service Station For Fourth Time

NEENAH — Police increased their surveillance of Milford's Standard Service, 702 Main St., after three break-ins were reported this month Sunday afternoon the persistent burglar returned for a fourth time.

The windows in the rear door repeatedly have been smashed to gain entrance and change was taken from the cash drawer and coke machine, already weakened by several prying attacks.

The break-in Sunday was discovered by Milford Herreid around 8:30 p.m. as he returned to the station. The building had been locked since 1 p.m.

Police said someone smashed a window in the rear door and then apparently crawled through the opening. The door had been secured by a tire chain connected to a tire changing unit and once the burglar was inside the building he released the air pressure mechanism.

About $20 in cash was taken along with an undetermined amount of change from the coke machine.

Census Slated For Parish

Appleton West Side

Nov. 13, Pastor Says

A census to collect information needed in developing a new Catholic congregation will be conducted in a section of the west side of Appleton from 1 to 4 p.m. Nov. 13, the Rev. Orville Janssen, pastor of the new St. Bernard Catholic Church, has announced.

The purpose of the census, involving more than 100 canvassers, according to Father Janssen, is to get information necessary for financing and building plans for the new parish. At the present time, masses are conducted in Xavier High School.

The census takers will visit all homes in the parish territory including the area north of the U.S. 10 on County Trunk D when a herd of cattle crossing the highway was struck by a car driven by Dennis L. Dobberstein, 17, route 1, New London. The cows were owned by Wilmer Petit, route 1, Fremont.

Dobberstein escaped injury but his car was extensively damaged.

At 6:30 a.m. Sunday, Miss Gloria J. Radtke, 19, 542½ N. Appleton St., Appleton, suffered possible neck injuries when the car she was driving struck and killed two cows on U.S. 10 on the eastern edge of Fremont.

4 Cows, 2 Deer Killed On Waupaca Roads

WAUPACA — Four cows and two deer were killed by three tractors, causing over $100 damages to the machine. Damages to the car driven by Miss Radtke were estimated in excess of $1,800. Miss Radtke told police she was traveling east and was blinded by the sun.

The two deer were killed at 6:30 a.m. Saturday when a car driven by Michael J. Nowitzke, Milwaukee, plowed into a herd crossing U.S. 10, four miles south of Weyauwega.

Nowitzke escaped injury but an estimated $1,200 damage was caused to his 1966 model car.

Citizen's Tip Helps Police Catch Vandals

Four 16-year-old Kimberly youths were responsible for the Friday night theft of some 30 Norbert J. Marx campaign signs. Appleton police said today.

The youths, all of whom were referred to juvenile authorities, were apprehended after an Appleton resident gave police the license number of a car. The resident saw the youths take a sign at E. South River and Lawe streets.

The signs later were found in a driveway at Little Chute. Marx, Republican candidate use.

Postmaster in Twin Cities

Post Offices Dedicated By Lawrence O'Brien

NEENAH — Postmaster-General Lawrence F. O'Brien, interrupting a schedule of campaign appearances for Wisconsin Democrats, formally turned over the new Neenah Post Office and the Menasha postal addition this morning to the two postmasters.

The Presidential cabinet member told an audience of some 500 persons, more than half of whom were children, that the new facilities "symbolize the nation as it is, democracy as it works, but the future as it should be."

He coupled praise for Menasha Postmaster James Omachinski and Neenah Postmaster James Dachel with predictions that the Post Office Department will rise to meet the challenges of what he termed "the information explosion" that he said is expected to result in 8.3 billion pieces of mail moving through the nation's system next year.

O'Brien cut short his prepared address to deliver a sentimental exhortation to the 300 to 400 school pupils present, reflecting on his association with the late President Kennedy for 14 years until the time of the assassination in Dallas, Tex.

O'Brien recalled standing beside Vice President Johnson in an airplane at Dallas when he was sworn in as President. "The torch had been dropped, but it had not touched the ground," he said.

He told the young people, "Almost before you know it, you will have the torch passed to you" by the present generation in office. Urging them to observe good citizenship and deploring news reports of juvenile delinquency, he added, "It is easy to get your name in the paper, but it is difficult to carry on a great democratic tradition."

O'Brien expressed confidence that they would succeed, remarking, "Each succeeding generation bests the one it succeeds."

Commenting on the future of the country's postal system, he described its major task as finding an answer to the question, "How do we keep used from being smothered by this weapon, serious injury could deluge of mail?"

Hand-Loaded Shells Stolen; Authorities Warn Against Use

Appleton police warned today that shotgun shells stolen from a parked car Saturday evening could cause injury if they are discharged.

Police said the shells were taken from the rear window ledge of a car owned by Clarence Voight, 2425 Barbara Ave., while the car was parked on E. Wisconsin Avenue.

The 12 gauge shotgun shells are hand-loaded and contain a maximum load. If the shells are fired in the wrong type of from being smothered by this weapon, serious injury could result, police warned.

WHILE OTHERS TALK, JOHN BYRNES ACTS TO HELP ELDERLY SICK

MILLS CREDITS BYRNES WITH MEDICARE PLAN

The following statement by Rep. Wilbur Mills, Democratic chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, made during debate on the Medicare bill, appears in the Congressional Record for April 7, 1965.

Mr. Chairman, where did we get the idea of the supplementary health benefits plan? Out of that fertile brain of the distinguished gentleman from Wisconsin [Mr. BYRNES].

The supplementary health benefits plan was taken from a bill introduced earlier by John Byrnes. It is now part of the Medicare program. It provides insurance against doctor bills and other medical expenses for people over 65.

Without this plan, the Medicare program would be confined to hospital bills. While others talk, John Byrnes is quietly but effectively at work helping people.

Hope to Complete 15 Frontier Buildings Near New London

NEW LONDON — The first is supervising construction of building in a unique frontier type town, which will contain a general store, post office, news paper office and other wooden false front buildings, is under construction at Rawhide, Inc. John Gillespie, director of the youth camp off County Trunk W, said the building, a 40 by 60-foot livery stable, was the first of 15 frontier styled buildings to be erected as the center of the camping program.

Gillespie said eight boys and their counsellors would camp in the woods or away from the complex for a two-week period, do their own cooking and have their own transportation to the frontier village to purchase supplies or pick up mail.

Financing Means Each group, eight boys and counsellors, will be given 1,000 wooden dollars for the two-week period to purchase supplies and other services. The entire camp will do odd jobs at inflated rates of $5 in wooden coins per hour if they run out of money.

Gillespie said the camp would be ready for the first two-week session after the first of the year.

Man Bleeds to Death After Green Bay Fight

Terrance Krueger, 25, Oconto, Cut After Falling Through Window During Scuffle

Post-Crescent News Service

GREEN BAY — A 25-year-old Oconto man died in a Green Bay hospital early Sunday morning shortly after he suffered severe cuts when he was knocked through a plate glass window while scuffling with another man.

A Bellin Memorial Hospital spokesman said Terrance Krueger, 25, bled to death after suffering deep lacerations to his chest and abdomen.

According to Green Bay police, Krueger was fighting with another man when he fell through the window of a door at Electronics Expeditors, Inc.

Man Arraigned
Clark Umentum, 26, route 3, Green Bay, was arraigned in County Court Branch 2 this morning on a manslaughter charge arising from the incident.

The two men had driven to Green Bay Saturday night and had stopped at a few Green Bay bars for drinks.

While driving down N. Clay Street about 12:45 a.m., four men who were crossing the street threw beer at the car in which they were riding.

They stopped and Krueger got out of the car. Krueger exchanged several words with one of the men and they began fighting.

During the scuffle Krueger went through the glass. The four men ran off and Krueger asked his friend to take him to the hospital.

Detectives investigated the descriptions of the man who case Sunday and picked up Umentum. Witnesses to the fight had provided police with the descriptions of the man who was involved in the fight with Krueger.

Harrison Farm Family Routed by Fire Sunday

SHERWOOD — A Town of chute near a chimney to the Harrison family was routed from their home Sunday night when fire of undetermined cause extensively damaged the Leander Schmidt farm home two miles southeast of here about 10:45 p.m.

Schmidt, who had been sleeping in a downstairs bedroom, awakened his family and rescued two children sleeping upstairs with a ladder placed at a balcony. The fire, which started in the basement, according to Town of Harrison fire is expected to be several men, traveled up a clothes chute near a chimney to the attic, severely damaging the stairway. Extensive smoke and water damage was reported to the remainder of the house. Firemen, forced to wear masks, had to chop numerous holes in the second floor to extinguish the blaze. Hilbert volunteer firemen also aided and were at the scene about two hours.

An estimate of damage has not been completed, although it is expected to be several thousand dollars, officials said.

American Can Announces Two Appointments

Marathon Products Officers Join Firm In New York

Two stock products division officers of Marathon Products, a division of American Can Co., have been appointed to new positions with the service products marketing division of the parent company. It was announced today.

John G. Hollingsworth has been named sales manager. He previously was field sales manager of Marathon stock products.

Edward H. Morgan has been appointed director of marketing for service products. He previously was marketing manager for Marathon.

Hollingsworth joined the company in 1952 in Neenah as a sales trainee for the former Marathon Corp., acquired by American Can in 1957. He became a stock products sales representative in Los Angeles in 1952, and national sales manager in 1960.

Born in Cleveland, he majored in business and law at the University of Minnesota. He is a member of the board of directors of the Tissue Association, and the Food Tray and Board Association, both of New York City.

Senate Campaigns Remain Uncertain Week Before Vote

Anything Possible With 4 GOP,
6 Democratic Seats Up for Grabs

By JACK BELL Peabody's strong civil rights WASHINGTON (AP) — Political stand-cal strategists are classing 10 In New Hampshire, Republi-Senate races, involving six can nominee Harrison Thynge, a Democratic and four Republi-retired Air Force general, is can seats, as cliff-hangers as trying to combine an out-the final full week of active standing World War II and Kocampaigning starts rean record with proposals to Although other close contests might provide election upsets, leaders of both parties now are concentrating their attention on Idaho, Illinois, Massachusetts, Michigan, Montana, Nebraska, New Hampshire, Oregon, Tennessee and Texas.

A consensus of party workers who have followed the campaigns closely is that there is no predictable sweep for either party and that most races will be settled primarily on personalities and local situations.

This could mean that the current Senate ratio of 67 Democrats and 33 Republicans may change only slightly in an ofyear election in which the minority party customarily picks up additional strength.

Lack of Issues
The 10 races regarded as down to the wire affairs illustrate the seeming lack of an overriding issue that reaches across the nation.

In New England, for example, there is a sharp contrast between the campaigns in Massachusetts and New Hampshire.

In Massachusetts, the Republicans are running Atty. Gen.
Edward W. Brooke, a Negro, against former Gov. Endicott Peabody for the seat being vacated by GOP Sen. Leverett Saltonstall. Some Republicans fear a white backlash against Brooke, but even that issue is blunted by

"Great Society" program.

Percy - Douglas
In Illinois, the white backlash Viet Nam and a potential sympathy vote for Republican Charles H. Percy, whose daughter was murdered, figure in his contest with Democratic Sen.
Paul H. Douglas. But many politicals believe a decisive factor may be Percy's age of 47 matched against Douglas' 74.

In Michigan, the pros think it's a case of whether Gov.
George Romney, seeking re-election, will be able to pull his senatorial appointee, Robert P.
Griffin, with him into the win-column. Griffin faces former Gov. G. Mennen Williams.

In Montana, Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield is working hard to save the Senate seat of Sen. Lee Metcalf, who has lined up with Mansfield against any escalation of the Viet Nam conflict. GOP Gov.
Tim M. Babcock, who went all the way with Barry Goldwater in 1964, is regarded as something of a hawk.

Gov. Sen. Len B. Jordan has run into a Republican split in Idaho that festered with the defeat of Gov. Robert E. Smylie in the primary. Although Jordan has tried to steer clear of the intraparty fighting, it could affect his chances against former Rep. Ralph R. Harding, a Democrat.

In Oregon, GOP Gov. Mark O.
Hatfield has toned down his previous dissent with Johnson's course in Viet Nam. But his Democratic rival, Rep. Robert B. Duncan, continues to cite his support of Johnson's policies.
Party strategists think the personalities of the candidates may unally settle this contest.

Revolution of Human Rights Group Fighting 'Silken Curtain' Of Discrimination Against Women

WASHINGTON (AP) — Some tween the sexes, but in self-re-

Betty Freidan
Betty Friedan, social critic and author who wrote the best-selling book "The Feminine Mystique," was elected president. Named chairman of the board was Dr. Kathryn Claren-bach, University of Wisconsin.
The group called on the Equal director of continuing education and chairman of the Wisconsin governor's Commission on the Status of Women.

The 300 charter members include men and women representing all religious, ethnic and economic groups.

Richard Graham, director of the National Teacher Corps and former commissioner of equal employment opportunity, was elected vice president and four of the other men were named to the 20-member board of directors.
The group called on the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission to enforce laws prohibiting discrimination on the basis of sex and urged wider use of women in industry and government.

The group, formed after a weekend organizational meeting, said it would work for "a fully equal partnership of the sexes, as part of the worldwide revolution of human rights."

In a statement of purpose, it urged women to work for equality "not in pleas for special privilege, nor in enmity toward men, who are also victims of

Shilling Manor Experiment In Service Family Housing

WASHINGTON (AP) — The quarters by assigning them excess housing on a what's-available basis at various installations. But people assigned to least one another. Town and those bases naturally get first choice.

Seems Successful
After 10 months, Schilling Ma-nor's success seems assured.
The project will be continued at least through 1968, a spokesman said.

Whether to open other housing at deactivated bases is being considered. Army studies are under way to determine what future housing needs will be.
More than 600 wives from all over the country have chosen Schilling Manor, near Salina, Kan., over "going home to mama," the defense spokesman said.

Officials expect the 730 homes
— two, three and four-bedroom houses — to be filled by the end of the year.

The project is open to families of all services but the Army is more or less in charge of the operation.

The rent ranges from $135 a month to $205, depending on a man's rank. It amounts to for-

Johnson Summit Trip, Campaigning Unlikely To Have Effect on Vote

Humphrey, Ford Reach Same Conclusion by Different Route

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey says President Johnson's Asian trip will not have any appreciable effect on the Nov. 8 election.

Republican House leader Gerald R. Ford doesn't think an expected campaign trip by the President later this week will help Democrats, either.

But they took different political paths to reach their conclusions Sunday.

"I do not believe that the President's journey — was in any way politically motivated," said Humphrey on NBC's Meet the Press.

He added: "I am sure the American people are pleased that the President went. I have a feeling that the attitude of the American public will be one of support for the President's efforts."

Inflation Issue

Ford said the expected campaign trip following Johnson's return Wednesday would not help Democrats because voters have kept their minds on basic issues, headed by inflation.

Ford said on ABC's Issues and Answers that Republican leaders had been apprehensive Johnson's trip would "divert public attention from the basic issues bothering the American people."

Both men delved into Southern politics.

Ford told a GOP fund-raising dinner in Macon, Ga., Saturday night that "Georgia's image in the 49 other states will be at a peak if Bo Callaway is elected." Last week, the Social Affairs Rep. Howard H. Callaway is Department announced today, running for governor against The slide was set off by a week segregationist Democrat Lester of heavy rains.

The girl was killed by a blow on the back of the head, according to a preliminary autopsy report. Other than that, authorities said, the death is a mystery.

She was reported missing a month ago by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kohlmeier of Beach City, Ohio, a town of just over 1,000 population about 15 miles southwest of Canton in Stark County.

Lt. Louis Napier, a Stark County sheriff's department detective, who had been working on the search for Linda, 19, said Saturday, "I knew the family well. She was one of the finest kids I've ever known."

There were 11 children in the family, including one born last week, Linda was the oldest.

Knox County Sheriff Ralph Peairs said the girl reportedly had been living in the Mount Vernon area, in central Ohio, about six weeks and had danced at night spots in Columbus and Cincinnati, and at a bar here.

Peairs said witnesses told investigators that Miss Kohlmeier left the bar here after work Saturday night, went to a party and left the party alone to return home.

Her car was found at the farm home east of here where she roomed — about two miles from where the body was found.

Maddox. Callaway, a conservative, was called by Ford "one of the most able, most qualified people I know in the House of Representatives."

Maddox U.S. Target

Meanwhile, Maddox claimed Georgia was the No. 1 target of the national Republican party.
He said the national party was spending $500,000 a week on the campaign with funds from Wall Street and Washington.

"The Democratic party has a platform that we ask our fellow Democrats to adhere to.
The segregationists have not asked the President of the United States, Mr. Johnson, or the vice president of the United States, Mr. Humphrey, to campaign for them and we have no intention of doing so, and I think that speaks for itself."

Humphrey refused to say if he would vote for George P. Mahoney, an opponent of open housing legislation who is the Democratic candidate for the Maryland governorship, if he lived in Maryland.

New Way Found To Stop Hair Loss, Grow More Hair

HOUSTON, Texas—If you don't suffer from male pattern baldness, you can now stop your hair loss...
and grow more hair.

For years "they said it couldn't be done." But now a firm of laboratory consultants has developed a treatment that is not only stopping hair loss...but is really growing hair!

They don't even ask you to take their word for it. If they believe that the treatment will help you, they invite you to try it for 32 days, at their risk, and see for yourself!

Naturally, they would not offer this no-risk trial unless the treatment worked. However, it is impossible to help everyone.

The great majority of cases of excessive hair fall and baldness are the beginning and more fully developed stages of male pattern baldness and cannot be helped.

Palmer Wins Australian Crown by 5

BRISBANE, Australia (AP) — Arnold Palmer three-putted the last green, but it couldn't have mattered less; he won the Australian Open Golf Championship by five strokes.

Palmer shot a one-under-par 73 Sunday for a 72-hole total of 276, 20 strokes under par on the 6,850-yard Royal Queensland course.

At the start of the 18th hole, Palmer was told that he was six strokes ahead of Kel Nagle in second place so he relaxed, taking three putts.

"When I'm six ahead with one hole to play," Palmer said, "there is not much point in worrying. I was thinking of something else on my first putt and it finished five feet short."

Nagle, of Australia, finished second at 28, Robert de Vicenzo of Argentina was third at 28.

Packers Whip Lions, Retain 1 1/2-Game Lead

on a 74-yard, five play drive to cut the Pack lead to 10-7 midway in the second half, with Tom Nowatzke smashing two yards for the score.

The Lions didn't get at Starr all afternoon — a real tribute to the offense line and Jerry Kramer and Fuzzy Thurston in particular. They kept Alex Karras and Roger Brown at bay.

Starr had an 84 per cent completion ratio on 11 "hits" in 13 attempts while relief man Zeke Bratkowski, who came on in the fourth quarter, posted 1,000 on 2 for 2, throwing to Jim Grabowski and Donny Anderson on successive plays.

The Packers defense allowed 317 yards but more than 110 of it came in the fourth quarter — after the Bays had stretched their lead to 24-7.

The defense's major problem was Pat Studstill, the little speedster who worked at flanker on both the right and left side of the line, thus providing Bob Jeter and Herb Adderley with a stiff workout.

Studstill caught seven passes for 164 yards from the good-looking rookie quarterback, Karl Sweetan. Running with Adderley and Willie Wood, Studstill made a great catch for a 53-yard gain to set up the Lions' only TD.

The Bays held the Lions down to 84 yards rushing and Sweetan finished with 21 completions in 45 attempts for 271 yards. He hit 16 of 25 in the second half when the Lions were forced into the air.

With Hank Jordan leading the way, the Packers caught Sweetan three times for 28 yards.

The Packers cooled Sweetan down with three interceptions — Tom Brown in the first quarter, Ray Nitschke in the second and Lee Roy Caffey in the fourth. Willie Davis and Adderley recovered fumbles.

After Chandler and Studstill each punted twice to start the sparring, the Lions made the first bid. Sweetan completed two passes to Ron Kramer for 42 yards to the Packers 31 but a holding penalty set the Lions back, and on a third-down play, Brown intercepted a pass that tipped off Studstill's hands and returned five yards to the Packers 45.

The Packers exploded for their first TD from that point. Pitts carried three times and Taylor twice to the Lion 16. Starr passed to Taylor for six, Pitts ran five and then duplicated the run for a TD on the first play of the second quarter.

Chandler added the first of four extra points.

Returns 21 Yards

Nitschke tipped up a Sweetan pass and then returned the interception 21 yards to the Detroit 39 to set up Chandler's field goal and a 10-0 lead. The Lions scored quickly, with Marsh hitting twice for eight yards and Nowatzke twice for 13 and the TD after Studstill made his 53-yard aerial gain.

Gar Yepremian, the left-footed Armenian soccer expert, kicked off to Adderley on the six and the fleet Packer defender raced 65 yards to the Detroit stock car victory of the season on two fumbles. On second Sunday, but it was 2 1/2 hours before he was sure he could make pass from Starr and Dick it stick.

Lorenzen already had departed from North Carolina Motor Speedway when officials of the ball on the Lion 15 but two National Association for Stock plays later Taylor fumbled Car Auto Racing (NASCAR) when hit by Karras and Wayne Rasmussen recovered for the Lions.

After Wayne Walker was wide on a field goal from the 40, the Packers zoomed 80 yards in seven plays for a 17-7 lead just before the half. It was sudden death for the Lions as Starr passed to Boyd Dowler for 14 on second down. He then hit Pitts for seven after which Pitts smacked center for nine. Taylor cracked for five and then Starr raced up the middle for 21 yards when he couldn't find a receiver.

From the 24, Starr leaped to the front of his protective cup and hit Pitts for the 24-yard TD.

The Lions put on a strong move in the third quarter, reaching the Packer 22 on Sweetan's passing, but Marsh fumbled when hit by Jordan and Davis recovered on the 22.

The Packers stormed 78 yards in nine plays. Starr led off with a 13-yard pass to Fleming and the big gainer was a 51-yard pitch to Carroll Dale to the Lion 18. Starr passed to Fleming for eight and then Pitts hit twice for nine yards and Taylor went in standing up behind a block by Forrest Gregg.

The fourth TD came after Caffey's interception early in the fourth quarter, the Bays moving 54 yards in nine plays. Pitts and Taylor slammed away on eight of the plays and the only pass came on play 4, a 10-yard, Starr-to-Dowler throw. The Bays had a first down on the Detroit eight, from where Taylor hit for five and then Pitts three for the TD.

Coach Vince Lombardi unloaded the Packer bench after Adderley recovered Studstill's fumble, with Bratkowski taking over at quarterback. After Grabo lost two, Anderson turned the corner beautifully for a 13-yard gain. The Bays gave up the ball on downs on the Detroit 15, falling a yard short.

Despite the singing audience, the Lions tacked together four first downs on Sweetan's passing and reached the Packer 22 when the game ended.

Coffey Gains 117 Yards in Losing Cause

Browns Rout Falcons, 49-17

By RON SPEER

ATLANTA (AP) — Junior Coffey's running is one of the enced defenders," Hecker said. Coffey is picking up a reputation as one of the National Football League's most determined runners, and Atlanta Coach charges.

Norb Hecker said he wouldn't trade the 210-pound halfback for Green Bay's Jimmy Taylor.

"Junior gives you that great second effort, and I don't think I'd trade him for Taylor, because Junior's future is all ahead of him," Hecker said.

Stay in Contention

Led by the running of Leroy Kelly and the passing of Frank Ryan, the Browns stayed in contention for the Eastern Division 52.

Kelly started the victory with a 70-yard scoring run — longest dash from scrimmage in the NFL this season — and Ryan now—though he didn't elaborate.

Hecker, however, was pleased with the passing of rookie quarterback Randy Johnson, who went all the way and hit on 14 of 25 for 158 yards and one touchdown.

"I think Randy grew up out there a little," Hecker said. "He's going to be a good quarterback."

Cleveland's receivers were just too good for our inexperienced.

Aussies Win World Golf Championship

Shade Rallying American Team By Two Strokes

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Australia used an old, beat-up strategy but it worked—and so today the Aussies are the men's amateur golf team champions of the world.

"I told my boys to go out and play the course and not worry about the individuals," said the gray-haired team captain, D. W. Dwyer.

"They did just that, and we won. I am proud of them."

The Australians won the Eisenhower Trophy — just as they had done in the inaugural event at St. Andrews, Scotland, in 1958 — with a four-day score of 877.

They beat out a rallying United States team by two shots, non-conference foes in weekend Britain third at 892 and South Africa fourth at 894. The South Africans, leaders going into the last round, collapsed on the 18-year-old ace, skyling to a 77.

Keep Their Heads

The Aussies won by keeping their heads while their opponents were fighting the tricky 7,125-yard Club de Golf Mexico, a demanding test of golf.

Only Deane Beman, the little tiger of Bethesda, Md., made a real charge at it. He shot a 12-3. The nullified tally three-under-par 69 to put the Americans within shooting range but the Yanks couldn't do it.

Dorning Gray of Pensacola, Fla., 28-year-old Walker Cup veteran, had a 75.

The other two Americans, Bob Murphy of the University of Florida, and Ron Cerrudo of San Rafael, Calif., shot 73 and 74, respectively.

Wings Avenge Loss to Boston

DETROIT (AP) — Ah, sweet revenge.

Detroit Red Wing Manager Coach Sid Abel reveled in it Sunday after his team smashed Boston 8-1 in the only National Hockey League action of the night.

"We were due to break out a little bit and I wanted to do it tonight, too," he said. "They gave it to us a little when they won up there in the opener (6-2)."

The victory was the second straight for Detroit after four straight losses. The Wings climbed into a tie for third place with idle Toronto.

Pistons Breathe Rare Atmosphere In NBA's West

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

What's this, Detroit in first place in the NBA's Western Division and Los Angeles in the cellar?

The Pistons, unaccustomed as they are to leading the league, are doing just that after edging the Lakers 124-121 in Montreal Sunday night.

And the Lakers, playing without Jerry West and Elgin Baylor — both out with leg injuries — are in last place.

It was Player-Coach Dave De-

Busschere's seven points in the final two minutes that did in Los Angeles best Boston 133-96, De- Angeles, which had moved out from Baltimore 103-97, and to a 115-111 lead early in the St. Louis edged Los Angeles 110-109.

Jim Nance Gains 208 Yards, Paces Boston Into Lead

Patriots Edge Raiders While Buffalo Stops Jets, 33-23

BY MURRAY CHASS Associated Press Sports Writer

Scalding water almost washed out Jim Nance's football career when he was four years old. Now he's blazing a trail for Boston to the top of the American Football League's Eastern Division.

Like a bulldozer in a jungle, the 235-pound Nance knocked down just about everything in his way Sunday as the Patriots defeated the red-hot Oakland Raiders 24-21 for their third straight victory.

The triumph, coupled with Buffalo's 33-23 decision over New York, put the Patriots one-half game ahead of the Bills and the Jets in the East. Oakland, which had won three straight, dropped two games back in the West.

Nance, a second-year pro, rambled for 159 yards on 19 carries in the first half and wound up with 208 yards on 38 tries for the game.

Third Best

The performance, the third best in AFL history, fired Nance far ahead of his closest contenders for the league rushing crown. The former Syracuse fullback has gained 733 yards this season, averaging 107 a game and 4.6 a carry.

Anyone who knew Nance 19 years ago never would have thought such a record possible.

"We had one of those old stoves in our house, and my brother was boiling some hot water," Nance explained. "When he tried to move it from the stove to the sink, I reached up and pulled his arm. I got scalded."

"I was in the hospital for 77 days, but I don't even remember it. Some of the water hit my head, and the doctors told me that if it had hit my eyes I would have been blinded. My left shoulder got the worst of it, and they thought it was burned so badly it wouldn't grow normally."

"But it did. I was lucky."

So were the Patriots.

In other AFL games San Diego defeated Denver 24-17 and Kansas City whipped Houston 43-23.

Nance scored two touchdowns from inside the three while Gino Cappelletti took care of the rest of Boston's scoring with a 24-yard touchdown pass from Babe Parilli, three extra points and a 15-yard field goal. Clem Daniels scored Oakland's three touchdowns.

The Jets, with Joe Namath throwing two touchdown passes, threatened Buffalo with a 20-point fourth quarter, but the Bills already had piled up too great a lead. Charley Warner's 95-yard touchdown run with the second-half kickoff plus four field goals by Booth Lustig sparked the Bills.

Kansas City stayed on top of the Western Division, bombing Houston with long distance touchdowns. Johnny Robinson and Willie Mitchell teamed on a 78-yard run with an intercepted pass and a lateral, Mike Garrett raced 77 yards and Pete Beathard combined with Otis Taylor on a 77-yard pass play.

John Hadl flipped a pair of one-yard touchdown passes, helping keep San Diego one-half game behind Kansas City. Hadl over-all completed 19 of 26 passes. Bob Scarpitto faked a punt and ran 63 yards for a Denver touchdown.

Lion Defensive Back Bobby Thompson brings down Packer halfback Donny Anderson after a 10-yard gain late in the game between Green Bay and Detroit Sunday. The Lions' Tommy Vaughn (48) and Packer end Bill Anderson (88) rush over to help their teammates. The Packers whipped Detroit, 31-7, to remain in the Western Conference lead.

Undergoes Brain Surgery

Arkansas Player Lies Critical After Injury

HOUSTON (AP) — University of Arkansas football player Claude Smithy was in critical condition Sunday in Methodist Hospital after emergency brain surgery Saturday night.

Smithy collapsed in the team's dressing room in College Station, Tex., after the game in which the Razorbacks defeated Texas A&M 34-0.

Arkansas assistant coach Lon Farrell said Smithy suffered a head injury last year but had a doctor's permission to play this season.

A hospital spokesman said the operation Saturday night was for a subdural hematoma, a gathering of blood beneath the outer covering of the brain.

Smithy, defensive tackle is a senior student from Searcy, Ark.

At Little Rock Arkansas Coach Frank Broyles said he kept in touch with the hospital throughout the night and that Smithy underwent a three-hour operation.

Broyles said doctors were encouraged following the operation but told him Smithy may be unconscious for three or four days.

Smithy's appearance in the A&M game was his first of the season. He had been sidelined.

He also underwent brain surgery at Shreveport, La., last condition Sunday in Methodist Hospital after emergency brain surgery Saturday night.

Broyles said his doctor had advised the Razorback coaching staff that Smithy could play this fall. Nevertheless, he saw limited service because of the knee injury.

Broyles said it was possible that the current injury and previous one were not related.

Run Regular-Season Victory Streak To 16 Games

PHILADELPHIA (AP) The Philadelphia 76ers thrashed the Boston Celtics 138-96 Saturday night to remain undefeated in the National Basketball Association with five straight victories.

It was the Celtics' first loss in the young season after winning four straight under player-coach Bill Russell.

A Convention Hall crowd of 11,914, largest ever to see a 76ers home game, watched Philadelphia grab a 55-44 halftime advantage and then break open the ball game with a 39-point third period.

Wilt Chamberlain, Philadelphia's 7-foot-1 super-star, forsook his usual high-scoring role to play mainly defense as he grabbed 31 rebounds and handed off nine assists, while scoring just 13 points, one of the lowest totals in his career.

Greer Leads

Hal Greer continued his dead-eye shooting to lead Philadelphia with 26 points, followed by Lucious Jackson with 19, Chet Walker with 18 and Bill Cunningham with 17.

Larry Siegfried was high for the Celtics with 24, followed by Bailey Howell with 17.

It was Philadelphia's 16th straight victory in regular season play, counting the last 11 last year. The 76ers haven't lost, except for the playoffs, in which they were knocked out by the champion Celtics, since being edged 102-100 by Cincinnati last March 1.

The NBA record for consecutive regular season victories is 17, held jointly by Washington (no longer in the league) and Boston.

Assumption Surprised by Marshfield '11'

Don Bosco Wins; Greenwood Suffers First Setback

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A major portion of the 1966 Wisconsin high school football season sailed into history during the weekend with most rated teams flying victory flags among their pennants.

Neenah, top-ranked team in the Associated Press poll of major schools, ended its season Saturday downing Two Rivers 42-0 for a fifth consecutive Mid-Eastern Conference crown.

The Manitowoc Ships, No. 4 in the poll, won the Fox River Valley Conference championship with a 13-2 decision over Green Bay Preble.

Fifth-rated Wisconsin Rapids Assumption, anticipating a conquest of the Central Wisconsin Catholic Conference title, was upset by upstart Marshfield Columbus 14-7.

Assumption, which had not lost any of seven games this year, allowed Columbus a 7-0 halftime lead and was never able to repair the damage. Despite the loss, Assumption keeps the loop lead but by a slim margin.

Chances for Tie

Tom Seidl gained 108 yards in 10 carries including a 68-yard touchdown run. The upset leaves La Crosse Aquinas with a chance to clinch a tie for the conference crown this week.

Neenah ended its season with an 8-0 mark, its fourth unbeaten season in a decade. The Rockets' victory over Two Rivers was blazed by halfbacks Tom Bachhuber and Chuck Wismer.

Manitowoc, 7-1 for the year, ran into a tough Preble which held onto a 2-0 lead after a first quarter safety before being worn down by the Manitowoc power. Manitowoc did not score until the final quarter.

Greenwood, second-ranked among The AP Little Ten, suffered its first loss of the season at the hands of Stanley-Boyd in 13, No. 7 Marshall a Cloverbelt Conference title showdown.

Don Bosco, ranked 10th in the big-school poll and hoping to retain the Milwaukee Catholic Conference crown, defeated Milwaukee Messmer 13-0 Sunday.

Green Bay Premontré 20-0 in games Friday involving Xavier's sixth consecutive Fox River Valley Catholic loop title.

rated big-ten teams. No. 2 Scho-field topped No. 8 Wisconsin Rapids 26-0 for the Wisconsin seasons.

In the Midwest Prep league, Madison Edgewood beat Hart-Milwaukee Lutheran took title land Arrowhead 39-13, and No. 7 honors on a 5-0 record with a 49-7 defeat of Wisconsin Lutheran.

The Red Knights rolled up 290 yards rushing and traveled 132 yards through the air.

Third-ranked Denmark defeated Omro 37-6 Friday, No. 4 Kewaskum 45-9, damped De Pere 13-0 in a season ender Thursday.

In the little ten, top-rated Durand and No. 6 Cochrane downed Weyauwega.

Late Washington Flurry Whips Eagles, 27-13

By RALPH BERNSTEIN 'Baker.
PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Washington Redskins scored a pair of touchdowns in a 1 minute, 22 second span late in the fourth period Sunday to defeat the Philadelphia Eagles 27-13 in a National Football League game.

The Redskins, winning their fifth in eight games, stunned a sellout crowd of 60,658 when they turned an intercepted pass and a fumbled kickoff into touchdowns.

Quarterback Sonny Jurgensen passed four yards each time for the score — the first to Bobby Mitchell and the second to Jerry Smith.

The score was 13-13 when the Eagles made the two costly errors that evened their record at 4-4.

Jim Shorter, Washington defensive halfback, intercepted a pass and returned 54 yards down the sidelines before being bumped out of bounds on the Philadelphia seven.

Looney Shines
After Joe Don Looney, who had one of his best days since coming to the NFL three years ago with 56 yards on 16 carries, picked up three, Jurgensen flipped to Mitchell for the TD and Charlie Gogolak converted for a 20-13 Redskins lead.

Washington kicked off and Ben Hawkins, the Eagles' No. 3 draft pick from Arizona State, fumbled trying to reverse his field and rookie Pat Hodgson O'Hara, who went very wide in felling on it for the 'Skins on the stretch and lost valuable Eagles' two. Two running plays passed four yards through the hands of defensive back Jim Nettles to Smith for the TD.

Earlier, Jurgensen, who came of the winner who did his job back to beat the Eagles for the early in forcing the pace and sixth time in seven games since then dropped out of contention, being dealt to Washington for, Buckpasser, whose next and quarterback Norm Snead, led final start as a 3-year-old will be the Skins to a 10-6 halftime lead, at Santa Anita Dec. 31, was He completed four passes for 40, clocked on a windy day in 3:26, yards in a first period drive that 1-5, far off the American record, ended with Gogolak kicking a 3:19 1-5 set by Kelso in win-17-yard field goal to equal one of the final of his five Gold booted by Philadelphia's SamiCups in 1964.

Buckpasser Gets Twelfth Straight Win

NEW YORK (AP) — Buckpasser, held under a tight restraint to the last half mile, easily posted his 12th straight victory Saturday as he won the two miles of the $110,500 Jockey Club Gold Cup at Aqueduct and boosted his bank roll to $1,218,874.

The margin of victory in the long journey was only 1 1/2 lengths over the Hasty House Farm's Argentine-bred Niarkos' and great 3-year-old son of Tom Fool-Busanda never had a moment of worry.

It was another one-half length fumbled trying to reverse his field and rookie Pat Hodgson O'Hara, who went very wide in felling on it for the 'Skins on the stretch and lost valuable Eagles' two. Two running plays passed four yards through the hands of defensive back Jim Nettles to Smith for the TD.

No AFL Gambling Probes Going On, Says Woodard

NEW YORK (AP) — The American Football League is keeping a constant check on all games for possible gambling irregularities, but President Milt Woodard says no players are being investigated.

"We are constantly investigating; that is our job," Woodard said Sunday about reports that some players were under investigation. "We are aware that certain games were taken off (removed from the gambling line) and then put back on."

"The gamblers are creating this. We were assured that this was not unusual. We have found no players involved, and we see no reason to be alarmed."

Woodard added that refusal by gamblers to accept bets on some games did not necessarily mean the games should be suspect. The gamblers simply could be worried about their chances for winning the bets, he said.

In Boston, Billy Sullivan, president of the Patriots, said that he had talked Sunday morning with Pete Rozelle, commissioner of the National Football League. Sullivan quoted Rozelle as saying he had alerted the NFL security network. "Pete said that he had already talked to some of his top people," Sullivan told the Boston Globe in a copyright story Sunday, "and that they had not uncovered anything which would indicate wrongdoing in any of our games."

Both leagues employ special investigators to keep a close watch on players' activities.

touchdowns for the biggest day of his career, credited his gains with "blockers like Kramer, Thurston, Curry and the others. They gave me a lot of room."

Elijah, starting in place of the injured Paul Hornung, said "Paul's a better blocker than I am. He's got more experience and he can find the holes better than I can." Elijah gained 15 yards more than the Lions on the ground.

Lombardi said "Pitts did an excellent job. He's been a good back for us for six years. You've got to think of him like a first stringer. Hornung gives us a lift in our passing game." The coach said "I kept Hornung out for an extra week. He's had some neck trouble and I thought it best to keep him out."

Herb Adderley and Willie Wood, who dogged Pat Studstill on his 53-yard pass catch, both credited Studstill with making an outstanding catch. "I don't know how he caught it yet," Herb said. This set up the Lions' only touchdown.

Studstill was high in his praise of Sweetan. "He threw nine passes to me that I should have caught and he made a hero out of me," Pat said. Studstill caught seven for 164 yards.

The 'Underachiever' CAN be Helped, Prof. Nason Offers Practical Plans

Editor's Note: Few educators are better qualified than Leslie Nason to help parents meet one of the most disconcerting of all school problems: the student who is achieving less than he should. Telling him to "study harder" just won't work. But in a series of articles of which this is the first, Prof. Nason tells of plans that DO work.

BY LESLIE J. NASON, ED. D. University of Southern California

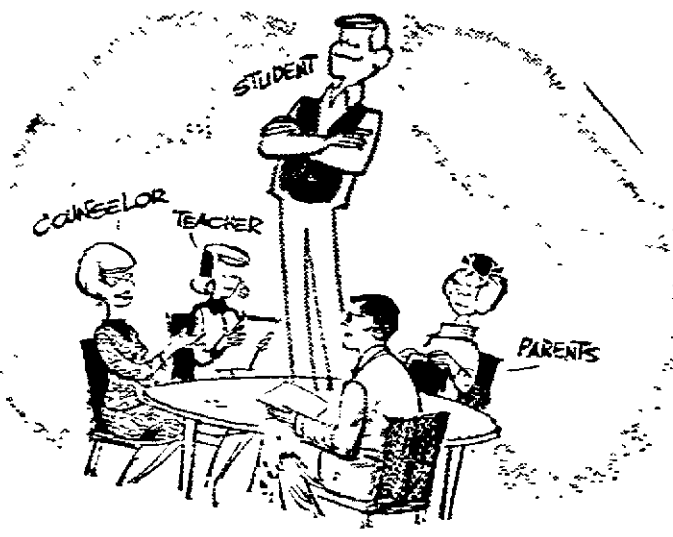

Getting an underachiever to improve his scholarship and approach his potential more closely has long baffled not only parents but educators.

It is, in fact, the most frustrating of all problems for parents concerned with rearing children in this complex, modern age.

Students themselves cannot prescribe for their own deficiencies since they cannot recognize their own troubles, much less determine the course of action to bring about improvement. The very fact that his own methods produce unsatisfactory results is an indication that the student cannot be his own doctor.

Unless someone helps him bring about a change he will probably continue working below his capacity year after year.

Some Misconceptions
Furthermore, unless specific plans for change are worked out with the student and are accepted by him, there will be a little chance of change.

Over the years I have often been called on to help such students. What my methods were depended upon the problem of the individual. Some merely need to polish already established procedures to make them more satisfactory; some must plan entirely new programs of study.

Persons who want to help students must first clear their own minds of misconceptions regarding the improvement of the student cannot be his own doctor.

It is NOT a matter of: — Inspiring a student to work harder. He doesn't see any reason to expend more energy when his present efforts are not bringing satisfactory results. He doesn't know what else to try! — The student being lazy. I know some students do appear lazy. However, their lack of action stems from lack of an appropriate plan rather than

— HE must feel that someone wants him to succeed.
— HE must feel that someone is ready and willing to help him formulate new plans and take a continuing personal interest in him.
— He must feel that he can carry out the first steps suggested and that the results will benefit him.

Tomorrow: The three biggest problems

Leslie J. Nason, Ph. Ed.

Students Protest Those Of New Political Faction

Represent Know-Nothing Group in Third Generation Since Depression

BY JOSEPH KRAFT

WASHINGTON For most of the world most of the year, the University of California at Berkeley is a supreme educational institution — perhaps the best in the country. But this year in California the university is an object of intense political contention. Why?

A part of the answer lies in know-nothingism of the familiar kind. But another part lies in what I have called generational politics — in this case third generational politics.

The know-nothing strain seems to me expressed in the stance taken by Ronald Reagan. In his campaign against the Democratic governor, Pat Brown, Mr. Reagan has made a special bid for the support of lower income whites in Southern California who are concerned about high taxes, crime, black power and the continuing war in Viet Nam.

As part of this bid Mr. Reagan has attacked the university as a center of beatniks and sexual excesses. He has called for a rise in tuition and an investigation by John McCone, the former director of the Central Intelligence Agency.

Know-Nothing Appeal
All that is a not very subtle way of saying that opposition to high taxes is justified because the money goes to support privileged characters at the university who mix with Negroes and criminals and resist the plain patriotic duty to serve in the war. It is a traditional example of the know-nothing appeal.

But know-nothingism does not explain the deliberate decision by Senator Robert F. Kennedy to defend the university on its own grounds. Still less does it explain the efforts by the New Left to embarrass Governor Brown by holding on the university grounds black power rallies and Viet Nam protest meetings.

What does explain these developments, I think, is the third generation in American politics. That is the generation which entered adult life in the second part of the Eisenhower regime, and which, therefore, comes after the post-war generation, which, in turn, followed the depression generation.

Sociologically, the third generation has already made its mark as a distinct entity in many ways. It is the generation that introduced to the world rock-and-roll music. It brought forward the kind of clothing symbolized by the black leather jacket. It sports the kind of haircuts made famous by the Beatles.

Politically, the third generation differs from the depression generation in taking affluence for granted, and from the post-war generation in not being concerned by any foreign menace. In particular, it is a post-McCarthy generation which feels no pressure to conform.

Third Generation Rebels
On the contrary, much as the post-war generation set itself apart from the depression generation by avoiding ideological affiliations, so for the third generation the obvious way to express itself is to take up minority causes and enter resistance situations. As the 23-year-old wife of Justice William Douglas put it: "I'm a rebel, independent, interested in minorities."

In line with that approach the politically active groups of the third generation have tended to take militant stands on behalf of civil rights, against the Viet Nam War, and against even the most moderate university restrictions. Their stand on Governor Brown fits the same pattern.

In their eyes, the governor is a liberal who has trimmed his principles on such matters as civil rights and Viet Nam under the pressures generated by the Reagan campaign. He is to them the living embodiment of the conforming spirit they so detest. It is only natural, not merely that they would oppose him, but that they would confront him with precisely the issues they think he has tried to duck — civil rights and Viet Nam.

Still all of this is only a groping for political identity, for the third generation has no national leader. President Kennedy could have been that man, and one of the greatest tragedies of his death is that it foreclosed the possibility. President Johnson cannot fill the void. Robert Kennedy is making his bid — hence the appearance at Berkeley.

He may succeed. But he may not. And to me there is a distinct possibility that this country will have for a long time a younger generation that is not assimilated to the national policy, that wanders in the deserts of opposition, taking extreme stands simply for the sake of militancy.

Delay Your Collections, Pay Some Taxes Early

BY SYLVIA PORTER

(In collaboration with the Research Institute of America) You now have the general rules for deciding whether to pay 1966 or 1967 income by switching income and expenses from one year to another. Here is how to go about the switch.

Most of us generally pay tax on income in the year we receive it and deduct expenses in the year we pay them. Although there are exceptions, if you render services in 1966 for which you are paid in 1967, you have income in 1967, not 1966.

Therefore, if you want to defer income from 1966 to 1967, ease off on collecting what is owed to you in 1966. Delay sending out bills, completing is to step up or reduce your jobs, etc. Or if your overall goal expenses this year. To cut your 1966 income, do 1966 tax, pay all possible 1966 equipment this year ($20,000 if just the opposite. Make an all-expenses before Jan. 1. To you are a married man filing a joint return, is that up to this year. If possible, try 1966 income, lowering 1967 amount of purchases is entitled to get an advance payment in income — put off paying bills to first year 20 per cent depreciation if the asset has a useful life of six years or more.

On Property Sales. If you sold or sell property at a profit in 1966, you must aren't due until 1967. For you buy and put the property in normally pick up the full profit instance, mortgage interest use on the last day of 1966. This year, even though you may payments for months in 1967. Let's say you are a married receive only part of the full can be prepaid in 1966. Real estate tax installments due in long-use equipment if you put estate tax installments due in Decem- in the equipment this year, you period that the price is to be ber. Local and state income will be able to cut your 1966 paid to you, collect not more taxes due in 1967 can usually be taxes by the 7 per cent than 30 per cent of the sales prepaid through estimated or investment credit on $15,000, or price in 1966. Then you include in 1966 income only that portion of your total profit which the pay ments you receive in 1966 are to the total price. Thus, if you collect only 10 per cent of your selling price in 1966, you will pay tax in 1966 on only 10 per cent of your profit.

other payments this year. The only limitation here is whether your lender or taxing authority will accept your prepayment. The Treasury will let you deduct only for prepayments of interest and taxes, and not for such other expense prepayments as medical expenses to be incurred in 1967.

Investment Credits. If you are a business or professional man planning to buy equipment in the near future, it's vitally important for you to determine whether part or all of the equipment should be bought in 1966 or 1967. The new $20,000 limit on acquisitions of equipment between 10-10-66 and 12-31-67 which are eligible for investment credit adds a new incentive for buying the equipment before 1967. If you haven't already taken advantage of buying up to this limit, try to speed up your purchases into 1966. You will get the investment credit faster and if you hold off to 1967, you will have to wait till 1968 to get the tax credit.

Another reason to speed up 1966 equipment purchases if you haven't yet purchased $10,000 of equipment this year ($20,000 if you are a married man filing a joint return), is that up to this amount of purchases is entitled to first year 20 per cent depreciation if the asset has a useful life of six years or more.

And you'll get the full 20 per cent depreciation even though you buy and put the property in use on the last day of 1966. Let's say you are a married dentist buying $15,000 of new estate tax installments due in long-use equipment if you put in the equipment this year, you will be able to cut your 1966 income by 20 per cent for first year depreciation on $15,000, or $3,000.

If you are in the 50 per cent bracket, these breaks add up to a $2,550 tax saving for 1966. If identical twins Chris and Tina you postponed this buying to Qualantone at St. Mary's school in 1967, you may lose some or all is seeing double again.

Man With Cold Legs Seeks Doctor's Advice

BY JOSEPH MOLNER, M.D.

Dear Dr. Molner: My feet and legs are always cold up to the knees. Could this be due to poor circulation? If so can anything be done to relieve it? I am past thing, for those to whom it applies. Smokers suffer more be-severe cases of arteriosclerosis. replacement of a portion of an artery with plastic tubing is possible. I shouldn't forget one more thing, for those to whom it applies. Smokers suffer more be-

At your age and sometimes a lot younger, coldness can indeed be due to faulty circulation. The underlying cause usually is hardening of the arteries.

Various medications may be effective in improving the circulation, and hence in making you more comfortable. They may not solve the problem totally, but with most of the creeping ailments of age, smart folks do what is possible to minimize the discomforts instead of expecting a total cure.

Another helpful measure, and a simple one, is Buerger's Exercises, which I have described before. This is simply a matter of lying on your back, then raising and lowering each leg alternately. Raising each one for one minute, 10 times, often helps.

In some advanced cases, sympathectomy may be in order. This is an operation, and not a risky or complicated one, in which a nerve trunk is cut. The nerve is the one which controls the arterial tone. The resultant relaxation of the arteries permits a stronger flow of blood.

Beyond these measures, in some instances a special X-ray study of the arteries can disclose whether any actual obstruction of blood flow is involved, as contrasted to simple reduction of it. In some fissure in the rectum and may need surgery. What is a fissure and what causes it? — Z. B. D. A fissure is a crack — in this case, in the membrane lining the anus. The usual cause is chronic constipation.

This crack in the skin, or membrane, wouldn't amount to much, except that in this location it usually becomes infected. Therefore it cannot heal, and becomes quite painful. The best correction is surgery. I have a booklet, "The Real Cure for Hemorrhoids," which also discusses fissures and fistulas, and you can have a copy by sending a self-addressed stamped envelope and 20 cents in coin to me in care of this newspaper.

Actually a different booklet may be more useful to you in the long run, "The Way to Stop Constipation," which is the best preventive for most rectal problems. It also is 20 cents in coin. If you want both booklets, please put an extra stamp on your return envelope.

For one thing, most others pay fixed dollars per day. When your bills build up higher... you lose. It's up to you to make up the difference.

But—Blue Cross coverage E-X-P-A-N-D-S to fit your expanding needs. To pay your hospital bill—no matter what it is. We call this "service benefits." Members call it great. And Blue Shield, too, has full-payment contracts available to pay your doctor bills in full.

As everybody knows, health care costs are going up. There are good reasons. For example, over 80% of the wonder drugs hospitals use today were unknown 15 years ago. And think of the heart-lung machines, artificial kidneys, isotope therapy—to mention just a few of the many scientific advances.

Consider, too, what it costs hospitals to attract and hold trained workers. About 70% of a hospital's total expenses are for personnel. It takes about 240 hospital employees, many people with specialized skills, for every 100 bed patients.

Good health protection is important to you and your family... the kind of protection that continuously keeps pace with medical progress. It's the kind you have when you are a Blue Cross • Blue Shield member.

O'Brien Stumps For Democrats In Wisconsin

Talks at Dedication Of Post Offices In Neenah, Menasha

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Postmaster General Lawrence F. O'Brien, President Lyndon Johnson's No. 1 political strategist, carried a bagful of praise for Wisconsin Democratic candidates Sunday night as he opened a two-day campaign in behalf of party hopefuls.

O'Brien gave special delivery treatment to the candidacy of Lt. Gov. Patrick J. Lucey at a $50 a plate testimonial dinner in support of the candidate for governor and drew heavily on the name of the late President John F. Kennedy.

O'Brien, the only member of Kennedy's "Irish Mafia" still serving in a high administration post, returned again and again to the late President. He told how they stumped Wisconsin's frigid northland together in the 1960 primary campaign. And he told how few and far between the voters were in the state's thinly-populated 10th District.

But Kennedy, he said, wasn't discouraged easily. "and he found many reasons for his fondness for this state and its people. One of the main reasons was how deeply he was impressed with the caliber of the man we are honoring here tonight."

Johnson too President Kennedy was not alone in recognizing that ability," he said. "President Johnson, who called Pat Lucey to Washington after his primary victory in September, told me afterwards how impressed he was with your lieutenant governor."

O'Brien, countering Republican charges that Democrats seek more and more centralized power.

U.S. Ambassador Arrested in Guinea

McIlvaine, Airline Official Held in Diplomatic Retaliation

WASHINGTON (AP) — The American Airways "had any responsibility whatsoever for the incident" in Accra, the Ghanaian capital.

McIlvaine, 53, a career foreign service officer, had been named ambassador only last month and presented his credentials Thursday to Guinea President Sekou Toure.

The State Department said there was no hint of hostility then. Guinea and Ghana, however, have been hostile since Ghana ousted the dictator President Kwame Nkrumah last February and he was given refuge in Guinea. Toure accepted Nkrumah as a nominal ruler of Guinea.

But Kennedy, he said, wasn't discouraged easily. "and he found many reasons for his fondness for this state and its people. One of the main reasons was how deeply he was impressed with the caliber of the man we are honoring here tonight."

Johnson too President Kennedy was not alone in recognizing that ability," he said. "President Johnson, who called Pat Lucey to Washington after his primary victory in September, told me afterwards how impressed he was with your lieutenant governor."

Huge Crowd Greet LBJ in South Korea

Macabre Halloween Tale

BY ANNE SMITH

KEY WEST, Fla. (AP) — One of the eeriest of Halloween happenings in the United States began here — in the nation's southernmost city — 35 years ago. The mystery lingers on.

It was a chilly end of October night when beautiful Elena Hoyos, 22, died of tuberculosis. The torture she had felt in life was gone, but even in death her body would not rest in peace.

As Elena died, a friend named Bienvenido Perez marched in a Halloween parade in a devil costume Elena had made for him.

Suspicion Right Minutes later he was pounding at her door. "Something told me she was dying and I rushed to her house," Perez said. His suspicion was right.

One of the mourners at Elena's funeral was German-born Karl Von Cosel, a man in his 60s who was a technician at the Marine Hospital. He held a deep admiration for the girl.

Cosel a few days later.

Inside the plane, propped up in a chair, was Elena's body. Perez, ordered away by Von Cosel, raced to the home of Elena's sister, Florinda Lachina Medina.

Believed to be Wax Mrs. Lachina Medina didn't believe Von Cosel had her sister's body. She told Perez it was only a wax replica.

The macabre events quieted for a while. But eight years later Von Cosel had built a shack in the brush near 17th and Flager Ave. Perez, who had been elected constable, received word from undertaker Ben Lopez to take a look.

Inside, he said, he found Elena's body. A young attorney, Enrique Esquineldo Jr., became interested in the case. He said Mrs. Lachina Medina had been to see him and spoke of a fear she felt every time she visited her sister's crypt.

"Eere With Me" She had been to see Von Cosel, too. "Don't worry," she said he told her. "Your sister is all right. I have her here with me."

There wasn't a sign of the kind of anti-U.S. sentiment that marred other wise warm and at times boisterous welcomes in other nations on the tour.

The President responded by popping out of his car half a dozen times to mix with the confetti-tossing, flag-waving throng.

Facing massed crowds estimated by police at 350,000 in City Hall Square, the President voiced concern for the safety of those who pushed, shoved and trampled each other in an effort to get a better view. He urged courtesy and caution "so we don't hurt anyone."

Harking back to the Korean War in which 54,245 Americans died, Johnson said he was standing on "hallowed ground."

Express Gratitude "I have come to express our gratitude for the brave and generous help you are giving to our common ally, Viet Nam — both neighbor's home."

nooses, and a million rounds of ammunition. The raids were announced by Queens Dist. Atty. Nat H. Hentel. He would not disclose the identity of the target camps, but added that the Minutemen group is dedicated to destroying "Communist, left-wing and liberal" installations of any kind.

Hentel said the camps were slated for destruction Sunday, a few days after the start of the hunting season.

Six of the men, all dressed in hunting garb, were seized in a Queens diner. Officers said guns, ammunition and bombs were found in the car of one of them. Another man was arrested in his Katonah, Westchester County home.

Hentel charged the men with conspiracy to commit arson and most received additional charges of violation of the anti-weapons law and unlawful assembly.

Throng Estimated at Two Million on Hand To Welcome President

SEOUL, South Korea (AP) — the mining industries and the crowds estimated to number two million turned out to welcome President Johnson today in the biggest, widest reception of his Far East tour. Throngs broke down metal fences, swarmed around police, and hung to rooftops for a glimpse of the man hailed in a typical banner as the "Great Texas Giant."

In a toast at the dinner, Johnson issued the U.S. promise to come to Korea's defense again if it is attacked.

"Korea inspires us to feel that nations can meet the gravest challenges successfully if they can be secured from terror," he said.

Fire Claims Man, 2 Sons In Milwaukee

MILWAUKEE (AP) — A factory foreman died Sunday near the bodies of his two sons whom he tried to rescue from a bedroom in the family's flames-swept dwelling in suburban St. Francis.

A neighbor was driven back by flames in another rescue effort, and two firemen suffered minor burns while trying to reach the bedroom.

John G. Butash, 31, was found dead near the bodies of his sons, John Jr., 1, and James, 6 months. Officials said the victims were overcome by smoke.

St. Francis Fire Chief Frank Frederick said Butash evidently had fallen asleep on a couch while smoking a cigarette.

Butash's wife, Juanita, 21, said she awoke to find the home in flames, fled through a window and called firemen from a common ally, Viet Nam — both neighbor's home.

12 Communities Apply Wolf Basin Planners Seek Water, Sewer Aid

An application to undertake a comprehensive area planning program for the development of community water and sewer systems has been filed with the Farmers Home Administration (FHA), according to an announcement by officials of the Wolf River Basin Regional Planning Commission.

The commission's eight member counties approved the program recently by passing resolutions to finance 15 per cent of the $276,000 program. The remaining 85 per cent is being requested of the FHA.

Commission officials hope to receive an answer to the initial application within the next 60 to 90 days. Completion of the plan, if approved by the FHA, will take about 30 months.

Twelve communities in the region have already applied for assistance for water and sewer systems, commission officials reported. Outagamie and Winnebago are the only counties in the region having no communities applying for the federal assistance.

Shawano Communities
In Shawano County, communities submitting applications were Village of Birnamwood, water and sewer; Caroline village of Clintonville, sewerage; City of Fremont, sewerage and Village of Scandinavia, water and sewer.

Carl Bertram Retires

School Doors Close Behind Director

BY MAIJA PENIKIS
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

When the doors of the Appleton Vocational School closed Friday, an era closed with them. Carl Bertram, who has been with the school for 39 years, 25 of which he spent as director, retired.

"It's been a long time and I'm looking forward to the rest," said the man who has served the Appleton community for so many years.

During his years with the school, many programs were initiated, among them the post-high school program. Auto mechanics, drafting, electronics, welding, data processing, business education program, sales and marketing and, most recently, agriculture and agribusiness programs prospered under his leadership.

Building Remodeled
Under that same leadership the three-story addition to the school was built and the existing building remodeled.

The other side, of the man, though, took an interest in the welfare of the community. He was involved in such organizations as the Easter Seal Society, which he helped found, the Sheltered Workshop, St. Elizabeth Hospital board, and the Appleton Education Association. He also received a citation from the Wisconsin Legislature for outstanding work in the field of vocational education.

But one of the proudest moments in his life came on the memorable Fourth of July, 1965, when he got a hole-in-one on the golf course.

Though Bertram admits there have been many outstanding moments during the many years, the war training program, which went round the clock for seven days a week, definitely stands out.

"I remember I would come around sometimes at 3 a.m. and see the whole operation in action and about 200 workers going at full speed, learning welding and electronics for the war effort," he said.

"I still believe that one of the reasons we were successful in the war was because of the skilled production workers trained."

A graduate of the University of Minnesota, Bertram first worked in Fond du Lac, then accepted the position as director of Trades and Industry here. "And I'll always be glad they invited me here because no man could ask more from a community and its people, and the hardest part of this whole deal was leaving the friends behind," he said.

He and Mrs. Bertram will leave for Sarasota, Fla., Monday and in April, visit their son in Germany and tour Europe. In September, they plan to come back to Appleton for a while. "I'm not giving up my season Packer tickets, Bertram said.

Camp Construction Begins at Rawhide

Hope to Complete 15 Frontier Buildings Near New London

NEW LONDON — The first building in a unique frontier type town, which will contain a general store, post office, newspaper office and other wooden false front buildings, is under construction at Rawhide, Inc.

John Gillespie, director of the youth camp off County Trunk W, said the building, a 40 by 60-foot livery stable, was the first of 15 frontier styled buildings to be erected as the center of the camping program.

Gillespie said eight boys and their counsellors would camp in the woods or away from the complex for a two-week period. They will have their own cooking and have their own transportation to the frontier village to purchase supplies or pick up mail.

Financing Means
Each group, eight boys and counsellors, will be given 1,000 wooden dollars for the two-week period to purchase supplies and other services. The entire camp will do odd jobs at inflated wages of $5 in wooden coins per hour if they run out of money.

Gillespie said the camp would be ready for the first two-week session after the first of the year.

Materials and much of the labor for the livery stable is being furnished by the Appleton Northside Kiwanis Club. Bill Schroeder, a former contractor, is supervising construction of the horse barn.

Gillespie said he hoped to have each of the 15 buildings sponsored by an organization. All will be old and rustic and constructed of weathered lumber, he said.

Donated Barn
Many of the materials being used in the livery stable were from an old barn donated to Rawhide by Ken Schneider, an area farmer.

Gillespie, who hopes to complete the livery stable this week, said about 50 volunteers were needed to work on the barn Saturday. All materials are cut and ready to be put into place, he said.

Dinner will be furnished persons helping with the work, Gillespie said.

Gillespie added he would like to get materials from as many old barns and sheds as possible for use in building the other buildings. "If anyone has any to donate we would be glad to pick them up," he said.

Byrnes Seeks Kagen Views On Viet Nam Incumbent Critical Of Opponent for Not Taking Stand

Eighth District Rep. John W. Byrnes, R-Green Bay, took issue with his opponent on the allotment of federal funds to the district and how to win peace in Viet Nam.

Byrnes spoke Sunday to campaign workers at the John Gillespie home, 2721 W. Viola St., Appleton, and today at Marinette during a campaign swing through Marinette County.

Byrnes asked why his opponent has refused to discuss the issue. "Does Dr. Marvin Kagen believe we should use our power to win the war, or that we should withdraw our troops and get out? Or does he favor a drawn-out stalemate with a generation of U.S. casualties? Does he agree with the administration's policy of making deals with nations like Russia who are helping the enemy in Viet Nam? He refuses to face up to these vital questions," Byrnes said.

Key to Peace
"The key to peace is to convince Hanoi of the determination of this nation and its people to stop the aggression there," Byrnes said.

"I strongly support the national decision to stop aggression in Asia and to stop it now in Viet Nam. If we do not, we will be forced to fight an even more costly and dangerous war at some point in the future. I favor action to win the war as quickly as possible, bringing maximum feasible U.S. power to bear. I favor an end to deals with nations giving aid to the enemy in Viet Nam."

"The Johnson Administration has been inconsistent. It talks tough one day and makes a deal with a nation aiding Hanoi the next. Its inconsistency causes the North Vietnamese to question the strength of our resolution."

He told party workers in Appleton, "If this district is not getting what it should from the federal government, Dr. Kagen ought to let us know why his own party is holding out on us. After all, we have a Democratic administration, a Democratic Congress and two Democratic U.S. senators from Wisconsin."

"In fact, if Dr. Kagen really believes what he is saying, he ought not to be campaigning to send another Democrat to Washington to bilk us out of more federal funds. He ought to start campaigning now to help us get rid of the ones we've got."

Dr. Marvin Kagen today challenged his congressional opponent, Rep. John Byrnes, to explain why the city of Appleton had to go to Sen. Gaylord Nelson to get a new post office.

Speaking at a reception in his honor at the home of Mrs. Eugene P. VandenHuevel, 1022 W. Oklahoma St., the Appleton physician said:

Routine Approval
"The failure of my opponent to win what amounted to routine approval for a new postal facility here serves as indisputable evidence to his ineffectiveness as a congressional representative."

"I have been informed by Sen. Nelson that postal officials in Washington had for quite some time been aware of the critical nature of our need for a new post office."

"These officials were unable to act on repeated requests by Appleton officials because funding for the project depended on department approval of a comprehensive written summary of this area's postal needs."

"My opponent," Dr. Kagen said, "never informed officials here that such a document was required. He could not have informed them of this because he had never bothered to find this out for himself."

"The necessity for this routine step in making such a project request came to light when Sen. Nelson was asked to intervene in behalf of the city."

Halloween Spirit Gone?

WAUPACA — An estimated 300 pumpkins were stolen from the C. W. Thorne vegetable stand near Rural, Friday night, and then smashed along a five-mile section of highway leading to Waupaca and on several city streets.

Police also received several reports that pumpkins had been taken from porches of several city homes, Thursday night.

Police are investigating the incidents.

Claims Byrnes Failed Appleton Leaders in Seeking Information

Dr. Marvin Kagen today challenged his congressional opponent, Rep. John Byrnes, to explain why the city of Appleton had to go to Sen. Gaylord Nelson to get a new post office.

"Voters of this area," Dr. Kagen said, "have a right to know why their congressional representative was unable to help civic leaders here replace a postal facility obviously inadequate for our growing needs."

Complaints About Unequal Treatment Far in Majority

Industrial Commission's Fagan Addresses Valley Rights Council

"Complaints regarding unequal treatment of men and women in employment far exceed cases involving racial complaints," the Fox Valley Human Rights Council was told Thursday.

Speaking on human rights in Wisconsin was Joseph C. Fagan, chairman of the State Industrial Commission.

"Our agency has the obligation to provide equal treatment because I don't think we can very well argue that the American way is the greatest if some people are left out," he said.

Practices Law
Discussing the Fair Employment Practices Law which went into effect in 1955, Fagan said that only in the last few years have teeth been put into the law. It deals primarily with discrimination because of sex, race, religion and most recently the handicapped.

"A very important program the agency has undertaken recently is the Positive Action Program," Fagan said.

Its purpose is to get employers and volunteer councils, such as the Fox Valley one, to take positive steps in insuring real equality.

The commissioner outlined some of the activities volunteers could undertake.

"Talk to the employers and try to convince them that handicapped people or members of minority groups would make good workers and welcome new families to the neighborhood. You can also help prepare people for such occasions when they will have to face living next door to a Negro family."

Don't Panic
"Explain to them that it is important that they don't panic and move, because other Negro families will move in and eventually a small ghetto will evolve," Fagan said.

He said it isn't enough for employers to say they are equal opportunity employers. They, too, can take positive action by putting up posters and advertising in Negro newspapers.

The problem is more prevalent in Milwaukee, Fagan described some of the commis-us," the official said.

Besides the cases involving sexual and racial discrimination, Fagan said there have been five cases of religious discrimination, five of handicapped and 15 regarding housing in the last year.

Asked about the migrant workers in this area, Fagan said that Wisconsin could use these people in the factories to cover the shortage of workers and that the commission is to engage the help of CORE and setting up programs, trying to the NAACP, before the Negro interest them in staying in the place even consider talking to Wisconsin throughout the year.

Not Trusted
"Often the white power structure is not trusted and we have to engage the help of CORE and setting up programs, trying to the NAACP, before the Negro interest them in staying in the place even consider talking to Wisconsin throughout the year."

Science Project Wasn't Supposed To Explode; It Did

WAUPACA — A seventh grade pupil here suffered minor face scratches, Friday, when a science project exploded during a demonstration.

Gordon LaMay, 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roger LaMay, was taken to a doctor's office, where he was treated and released.

A junior high school spokesman said he did not believe the project was capable of exploding. The material was made several days prior to the demonstration. When a match was struck nearby, it exploded. LaMay was struck in the face by some pieces of papier mache.

Shiocton Schools Close for Convention

SHIOCTON — School will be closed Thursday and Friday so teachers can attend the Wisconsin Education Association convention in Milwaukee.

Supt. Marvin Obry said classes will be dismissed at the regular time on Wednesday and resume the following Monday.

Attend K-C Workshop

NEW LONDON — Robert Witczak and Mrs. Wesley Sharpe, senior high school business education department representatives, took part in a workshop at Kimberly-Clark Corp., Appleton, Thursday.

One Hundred Pounds of sugar was among the ingredients made into colorful pieces of hard, spice candy by the Bethany Auxiliary members of Christ Lutheran Church, Clintonville. Some of the candy is given to the Bethany Home, Waupaca, and the rest is sold by the Auxiliary with the proceeds going to the Bethany Home. Above Mrs. Oscar Hoh pours a cooked batch of candy onto a platter. Below, Mrs. Arthur Giersbach empties the finished candy pieces into one of the large pans. Each flavor was put into a separate pan. (Laib Photos)

Paving Projects At New London End for Season

NEW LONDON — Street Nov. 14. The Potter Community Association is in charge, with James Meyers, chairman. Benefiting organizations will be the Calumet County Association for Retarded Children, Werner-Allen Road, and on Wolf River Avenue at Mill Street. Center, Heart Association, Cancer Crusade, Salvation Army Cemetery also was completed and Red Cross.

The Washington Street project at least 1 per cent of their included curb and gutter installation, widening the street, which was digging the roadway down three feet to put in a solid base and hauling fill.

Storm sewer is to be placed north of the roadway of Washington Street.

Final work on installation of traffic control signals at U S 45 and State 54 was completed Friday by the State Highway Department. The Waupaca County department made minor repairs at the intersection.

'Education Adds Up' Theme for Shiecton

SHIOCTON — "Education Adds Up" is the theme for the American Education Week observances, Nov. 6-12. Parent and teacher conferences will be from 8 a.m. to noon and 1 to 4:30 p.m. Nov. 11. No visiting schedules have been arranged.

Church Society Sees 2 Missionary Films

ROYALTON — Two missionary film strips will be shown at the Congregational IHS Society Women's Fellowship meeting at 8 p.m. Thursday at the church. "Views from the Rim" will pertain to missionary work in the border countries of Asia. "How Real the Hope" pictures the life of Arab refugees. The movies follow the theme, "Wealth and Want," from the worship program booklet, "Facing Life's Dilemma."

Rantoul Sets $975 Goal In Fund Drive

POTTER — A quota of $975 has been set for the Rantoul Community Fund which will begin Friday and continue until Nov. 14. The Potter Community Association is in charge, with James Meyers, chairman.

Benefiting organizations will be the Calumet County Association for Retarded Children, Werner-Allen Road, and on Wolf River Avenue at Mill Street. Center, Heart Association, Cancer Crusade, Salvation Army Cemetery also was completed and Red Cross.

Residents are asked to donate at least 1 per cent of their annual salary so the community fund may reach its goal, which was missed last year.

A progress thermometer will be at the Farmers State Bank enabling town residents to follow the drive's progress.

During the campaign, volunteers will distribute stickers with the telephone number of the fire department which should be placed under the telephone cradle for emergency use.

About 20 volunteers will conduct the house-to-house campaign.

UNICEF Drive Sparks Waupaca Halloween Plans

WAUPACA — As part of Halloween activities, kindergarten through sixth grade students will take part in the annual "trick or treat" drive for United Nations Children's Emergency Fund (UNICEF), between 6 and 7 p.m. today. The junior high school student council is sponsoring the drive and was to distribute UNICEF boxes to students today. Boxes will be returned to the classrooms Tuesday morning.

The Parent-Teachers' Association will sponsor a Halloween party for all junior high students at the Central School multipurpose room from 7 to 9:30 p.m. today.

In an effort to avert malicious mischief by pranksters, auxiliary police will assist the regular police, using five radio cars with two men in each car. Each of the cars will be assigned a ward to patrol.

A Fall District Conference of Agriculture and home economics instructors and school administrators, sponsored by the State Board of Vocational, Technical and Adult Education, Madison, was held at Clintonville Senior High School with 80 persons present from Waupaca, Wood, Shawano and Outagamie counties. Discussing curriculum material are, seated left, Mrs. Mildred Doss, supervisor, and Miss Kathryn Gill, chief, home economics education. Standing are Mrs. Charles Wruck, home economics instructor at Clintonville Senior High School, and Mrs. Ronald Goolsbey, head of the home economics department at Appleton Senior High School. # Extensive Damage to Cars

4 Cows, 2 Deer Killed On Waupaca Roads

WAUPACA — Four cows and two deer were killed by three tractors, causing over $100 damages to the machine. Damages to the car driven by Miss Radtke were estimated in excess of $1,800. Miss Radtke told police she was traveling east and was blinded by the sun.

The two deer were killed at 6:30 a.m. Saturday when a car driven by Michael J. Nowitzke, Milwaukee, plowed into a herd crossing U.S. 10, four miles south of Weyauwega.

Nowitzke escaped injury but his car was extensively damaged.

At 6:30 a.m. Sunday, Miss Gloria J. Radtke, 19, 542½ N. Appleton St., Appleton, suffered possible neck injuries when the car she was driving struck and killed two cows on U.S. 10 on the eastern edge of Fremont.

The cows were owned by Harry Hartfiel, route 1, Fremont, who was herding them on the highway with a tractor. One

The camp has been used during the summer by various scout and womens groups. Lutheran and non-Lutheran groups are accepted.

Firemen Hustle Chasing Fires

NEW LONDON — Overlapping fires kept volunteer firemen on the run early Friday evening.

Firemen were returning from a truck fire at the city dump about 7:35 p.m. when they learned that fire was shooting from a chimney of a home owned by Douglas Wangeline, 319 Waupaca St.

The fire truck led a procession of firemen's cars through the city to the second fire after being alerted by two-way radio. The first call at 7:13 p.m. was made when a truck owned by Curwood Inc., caught fire inside its dump box. Scrap plastic being unloaded caught fire.

No estimate of damage was made to the truck and none was noted in the second fire.

MILLS CREDITS BYRNES WITH MEDICARE PLAN

The following statement by Rep. Wilbur Mills, Democratic chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, made during debate on the Medicare bill, appears in the Congressional Record for April 7, 1965.

Mr. Chairman, where did we get the idea of the supplementary health benefits plan? Out of that fertile brain of the distinguished gentleman from Wisconsin [Mr. BYRNES].

The supplementary health benefits plan was taken from a bill introduced earlier by John Byrnes. It is now part of the Medicare program. It provides insurance against doctor bills and other medical expenses for people over 65.

Without this plan, the Medicare program would be confined to hospital bills. While others talk, John Byrnes is quietly but effectively at work helping people.

Home Mutual Forms New Stock Company

Homeco Life Names G. Allen Bubolz As Vice President

The launching of a new stock life insurance affiliate of the Home Mutual Insurance Group, the Homeco Life Insurance Co., was announced Saturday by the board of directors and the Homestead Mutual Insurance Co., according to Gordon A. Bubolz, president.

The new company received a charter from the Wisconsin Insurance Department and a staff has been engaged to get the program underway by Jan. 1.

The board of directors at its initial meeting Friday named G. Allen Bubolz executive vice president of the firm. The name has long been connected with the Home Mutuals Group. His grandfather, Julius Bubolz, founded the original insurance company March 1, 1900. His father, Gordon A. Bubolz, began working with the firm at the age of 18 and has served as its president for 30 years. He also was named as a new member of the Home Mutual board and will serve as acting treasurer of all three companies.

Capitalized at $600,000. In addition to Bubolz and his son, other board members are Albin L. Bevers, Appleton; Edward J. Byrne, Appleton; Dr. Walter H. Ebling, Madison; Clarence G. Fuerst, New London; Gordon M. Hanson, Larsen; the Rev. W. E. Lange, Seymour; Howard Lehner, Oconto Falls; William McEnroe, Oshkosh; Lowell C. McGowan, Clayton, Mo.; and Dr. John G. Russo, Kaukauna.

The new company is capitalized at $600,000. Bubolz stated he contemplates this figure will be increased to $1.5 million in the near future.

Men Injured in Tavern Fight Face Charges

Appleton Pair Accused of Disorderly Conduct

Two Appleton men who were injured during a tavern fight that allegedly involved the use of a knife, were arraigned on disorderly conduct charges in Outagamie County Court Branch 2 Friday afternoon.

John Knostenberg, 28, 1028 W. Commercial St., pleaded innocent and trial was set for April 17. County Judge Gustave J. Keller set bond at $100.

Terry L. LaMourie, 23, 1602 N. Ballard Road, did not enter a plea. His case was continued to Nov. 1 and bond was set at $100.

The Appleton men allegedly were involved in a fight early Oct. 22 at Shine's Bar, 343 W. College Ave. They were treated for knife wounds.

Manuel Sanchez, 25, a migrant laborer from Mathis, Tex., also appeared Friday in County Court and preliminary hearing was set for Nov. 4. He is charged with causing bodily harm by negligent use of a weapon (knife) in connection with the tavern fight.

Sanchez, who is being represented by a court-appointed attorney, was returned to jail in lieu of $2,000 bond. He was arraigned Monday.

Sunday Closing Asked for Dump

WAUPACA — A recommendation requesting that the city dump be closed on Sundays will be made soon to the board of public works.

Iver Oerter, city engineer and director of public works, said he was making the recommendation because of a fire at the dump Sunday morning. Recently the city has been using a landfill system at the city dump. No burning is allowed, but on Sundays the dump lacks proper supervision and citizens light fires.

Oerter said he also will recommend that weekday route 2, collided at the intersection of S. Main and Badger a.m.-6 p.m. The week day hours presently are 10 a.m.-7 p.m. DaWalt was traveling south Saturday dumping hours are 7 on Main and Hickstein west on a.m.-7 p.m. and these also may be changed, Oerter said.

D. J. McIntyre Joins Staff of U. S. Senator

Squad Car Involved in $450 Waupaca Crash

WAUPACA — Damages in excess of $450 were caused at 5:09 p.m. Friday, when a car driven by Betty J. Daily, 18, route 1, Menawa, and a Waupaca police squad car driven by Sgt. Donald E. Fabricius collided at the intersection of Sasse and Washington streets.

Miss Daily was traveling north on Washington and Fabricius east on Sessions.

No injuries were reported.

Damages Exceed $100 in Waupaca Mishap

WAUPACA — Damages exceeded $100 at 9 a.m., Sunday when cars driven by James H. DaWalt Jr., 17, 430 W. Fulton St., and Albert Hickstein, 76, recommended that weekday route 2, collided at the intersection of S. Main and Badger a.m.-6 p.m. The week day hours presently are 10 a.m.-7 p.m. DaWalt was traveling south Saturday dumping hours are 7 on Main and Hickstein west on a.m.-7 p.m. and these also may be changed, Oerter said.

Appleton Population Expected to Reach 73,500 by '70 Census

The population of Appleton will reach 63,549 by 1970, according to estimates of the Fox Valley Tri-County Census Tracting Committee.

Census tracting for Outagamie, Winnebago and Calumet counties has been completed and the maps with recommended boundaries will be sent to Washington for tabulating in the rear future, according to committee chairman Mrs. Dorothy Stullings.

Committee members and planners working on the tracting indicated Thursday night that the three-county area is likely to be considered a standard metropolitan statistical area (SMSA) in 1970. The U.S. Census Bureau requires a central city in the area of more than 50,000 population before the area meet SMSA qualifications.

Band Concert Set At New London High

NEW LONDON — The senior high school band will present its annual fall concert at 8 p.m. Nov. 22 in the Washington School auditorium.

Don Griebonow, band director, said the concert would feature American music as written or arranged by American composers. The entire scope of American musical history will be touched — from "American Patrol" to "Moon River" — Griebonow said.

Break for the Fox Cities

The real possibility that Republicans will recapture control of the Wisconsin Assembly in the Nov. 8 election is particularly meaningful to the Fox Cities urban area. Attrition has already removed a good segment of top Republican leadership in the lower chamber, opening up leadership positions to younger members.

Two Republican assemblymen from this area are being prominently mentioned as candidates for those positions: David Martin of Neenah was recently appointed to a vacancy on the State Building

Goings-On in Laos

There is something strange and wonderful about the most recent goings-on in Laos only as usual the United States is getting the blame for trouble.

Last week United States Ambassador William Sullivan was told that General Thao Ma, commander of the Laotian Air Force, was annoyed at one of his bitterest enemies, Major General Kouprasith Abhay, commandant of the army base near Vietiane. General Ma was going to fly over the army base in protest.

But while Ambassador Sullivan and the British Ambassador were informing General Abhay, the planes did indeed fly over and then proceeded to bomb and strafe the area, reportedly killing at least 30 people. Since Premier Prince Souvanna Phouma was vacationing in France, Ambassador Sullivan got hold of the acting premier who found another prince and former premier Boun Oum. Eventually General Ma

Charging for Rescue Service

The chairman of the Common Council's Public Safety Committee questions the importance of having the Appleton Fire Department provide rescue squad (emergency) service to residents of the community.

He has called a special meeting Friday to discuss whether the city's rescue squad should compete with private enterprise (two ambulance services here) and to decide if a service charge should be made on all emergency calls.

At present the department's rescue squad provides service to Appleton residents without charge. However, it must

Tourism in Latin America

Latin Americans have long complained that North Americans are far more interested in both Europe and Asia than our neighbor continent. The neglect extends not only to politics and aid but to something that could effectively assist Latin Americans in their constant struggles against poverty — tourism.

This month a Central American Tourism Seminar is being held in El Salvador and its aim is to figure out ways to encourage all tourists to visit the various countries on the isthmus but most especially Americans who after all are not far away.

Plans include the development of more hotels and the improvement of others. Here Central America is getting help from Spain which has already granted scholarships for Central Americans to study the Annual Pioneer Festival Planned

100 YEARS AGO
Quoted from the Appleton Crescent for Oct. 13, 1886.

We learn that the Pioneers of Appleton will hold their annual Festival for 1886 in this city on Thursday evening, Oct. 18th.

An address upon the early history of the City will be delivered in Adams' Hall by Gen. Samuel Fellows, to which the public will be welcome.

After the address, the Pioneers will participate in a supper at the Johnson House.

The two first settlers of Appleton — John F. Johnson and Julius S. Buck — with very many of the first settlement will be there to entertain the occasion with recollections of the past.

55 YEARS AGO
Monday, Oct. 27, 1911.

Despite the renewed strong German attack on the Russian front, the Red Army was holding its own, fighting under "no retreat" orders in order to save Moscow.

Miss Glendore Miller, Clintonville, Waupaca County Dairy Queen, reigned over the 4-H Clubs of the county as 300 members and their club leaders met for a recognition day and banquet at Manawa. Miss Miller and Orville Johnson, also of Clintonville, received eight-year pins. Wilton Chapin, 13, route 1, Manawa, was awarded a trip to the International Livestock show and 4-H Club Congress in Chicago in recognition for his work. He Commission and if re-elected presumably would merit reappointment. And both he and Harold Froehlich of Appleton are being mentioned as possible candidates for Assembly speaker.

In the past the Fox Cities have suffered on occasion from a relatively weak voice in the state capitol establishment in comparison with other large urban centers. A party split in our representation has also been a handicap.

With a major change in the composition of that establishment a distinct possibility, the Fox Cities have an opportunity of strengthening their voice.

was persuaded to fly off to asylum in Thailand.

Now the Laotian Cabinet is bitterly denouncing the attacks, as well it might, as criminal. Cabinet members are also mad at Thailand for offering refuge to the dissident air force officers. And they are particularly annoyed at the United States. It seems the planes had been given to Laos by the United States although obviously not for the purpose of strafing the Laotian army. Using logic, the cabinet members argue that without the planes, the dissidents wouldn't have been able to launch the attack. Of course without the planes, the Laotian Air Force would not be repelling the Communist Pathet Lao either, but that matter is easily forgotten in the current squabble.

What has not been explained is why General Ma so disliked General Abhay. But probably there are officers of our own varied services who could explain that.

be remembered the cost of the unit and training of the men who operate it with a high degree of efficiency comes from the taxpayer's pocket.

The city's rescue squad service should not be abolished and it's debatable that a charge should be made on emergency runs within the city limits. However, better regulation of all ambulance services might be in order, including establishment of certain training standards and speed limits.

We are confident that anyone in Appleton in need of emergency assistance could care a tinkers' damn whether it is private or public enterprise saving his life.

business of tourism and how Spain has so sharply increased the number of visitors and therefore of dollars spent. The governments in Central America are being urged to take an active part in such developments. El Salvador's Legislative Assembly is already being asked for a special law to speed the development of tourism and Mexico's President has expressed the willingness of his government to cooperate with other Central American countries.

There already is a Secretariat of Central American Tourism Integration which is working toward uniform immigration laws and a Central American Tourism Card which would do away with special visas and customs barriers.

Certainly such coordination, combined with initiative in advertising the region, should lure more tourists and dollars.

Church's Business Is Bringing Word of God (Bible) to World

Editor, Post-Crescent:

We, too, were intrigued by the editorialist's caption, "Pike's Figue." However, we were no less frustrated by the editorial than we have been in the past by the former Bishop's hauling down of old flags and sending up new ones over a company he no longer represents.

It begins to appear that it's time for soldiers of the Cross to re-define the battle lines. We can think of no better definition of the case than that which appeared on the back of our church bulletin last Sunday. It was written by the president of one of our seminaries and follows, in part:

"On its own, the Church has no word for this world. To pretend that it has a word of its own is to be a fraud. But it has a Word. It is the Word of Another, the Word of God. The Church is an ambassador, bringing a message or a word from its Lord."

"The U.S.A. ambassador to Canada and the Canadian ambassador to the U.S.A. may both be very clever people. But they are not commissioned to say clever things to one another, or to the countries to which they are sent. Each is under command to bring a word from his department of state. Failing to do this, no matter how interesting or clever they may be, they would be recalled and discharged."

"It is so with every follower of Christ, and it is so with the Church of Christ. We are entrusted with the Word of God, and this Word we must bring to the world of men."

"The world may beguile us into thinking that we must bring something wiser, something more scintillating, something more up-to-date than the Word of God. How can a Word given to rather uninformed men (the apostles) almost two thousand years ago be either adequate for or interesting to twentieth century man? After all, Jesus was but a carpenter and the Bible is but a collection of old books?"

"If we are ensnared by these voices, and turn to finding another word, we simply have no more reason to be the Church. The only reason for the Church's life is the bringing of the Word of God to the world. That is our business, and if we turn to anything else, we are simply out of business."

It may pique Pike to know it but some of us are still playing Follow The Leader (for "keeps", yet — this is no sham battle), and he ain't "it!"

Extra Withholding Not a Tax Increase

Editor, Post-Crescent:

In your editorial of October 26, you stated that: "Earlier this year the federal government took two bigger bites out of the wage earners take-home pay when withholding for Social Security and income taxes both increased."

The implication which you make is that federal income taxes were increased under the Johnson Administration. You neglected to point out that increases in income tax withholding were initiated only to bring the tax withheld into line with taxes owed. Since the Democratic Party came into power in 1961, we have seen several notable tax cuts, and your editorial writer is obviously confusing the Knowles income, sales, gas, cigarette, and beer tax hikes with the Democratic tax cuts.

I am certain that the Democratic Administration could perhaps initiate even further tax cuts if The Post-Crescent would prove that its editorials on economy in government and inflation are not sheer hypocrisy by declining a federal postal subsidy to finance part of your "free enterprise" operation.

Oh well, I guess that's one of the joys of being a newspaper editor is that one does not have to be consistent, nor is he required to print letters exposing his myths.

Yours for economy in the postal system.

Race's Voting Record Belies Election Stand

Editor, Post-Crescent:

Although accustomed to the usual hocus-pocus of politicians running for office, I really get burned up when a man tries to change coats for the purpose of election only. Our sixth district congressman, John Race, has done just that in a recent circular in which he implied he had tried to hold the line on federal spending. His record belies his words.

John Race's voting record in the first session of the 89th Congress, as compiled by the Americans for Constitutional Action (ACA), shows he endorsed 95 per cent of federal spending and unspent money bills. No Republican in the entire House voted as lavishly as John Race. In fact, in a congress overburdened with two free-spending Democrats for every Republican, John Race voted away our tax money more freely than the majority of Democrats.

The Democrats with their huge majority in both House and Senate have been trying to squirm out of responsibility for their vote buying high spending. There is no question that irresponsible federal spending is the cause of our extreme financial dilemma, tight money and inflation. The government has taken so much money from the free portion of the economy and diverted it to non-economic purposes that money is in short supply for such things as business expansion, home construction, and even further government spending. The government has a way out of tight money, however. It simply creates more money and goes right on spending. But in the process our dollars become worth less and less.

They have tried to blame both tight money and inflation on business at a time when business profit prospects are so poor that the average market value of corporations has dropped 25 per cent. I know where the real blame lies, and I intend to vote accordingly. The odds are 140 to one that Mr. Steiger, or any other Republican for that matter, will represent us more sanely than Mr. Race.

Wisconsin Report

How Valuable Are Outside Speakers In State Campaigns?

BY JOHN WYNGAARD
MADISON — In an era that has so many hundreds of pollsters and other analysts of the elector's psyche ranging the countryside, the isolated observer of the political scene is sometimes tempted to nominate topics for their whirling computers.

Wyngaard

What is the rationale, for example, of the parade of outside stumping talent that is brought into this state — and presumably others — at biennial intervals to persuade the people of Wisconsin to uphold one political program or party or candidate, or another?

Will the presence of the Kennedy's, or Vice President Hubert Humphrey, or the postmaster general, on a Wisconsin platform on behalf of the Democratic candidate for governor have any measurable effect in taking votes that might otherwise not be counted, or counted for the Republican nominee on Nov. 8?

The dependence upon borrowed campaign talent is not confined to any one party. But the Democrats appear to be more wedded to a belief in its efficacy than the Republicans. In this epoch of the Republicans' adversity, it is possible that they have fewer outside speakers because they have less available talent on the national stage.

After the mortal avalanche of votes against him in this state only two years ago, for example, no well-meaning partisan is likely to invite Mr. Goldwater into this state to ask for the backing of a local Republican ticket. But former Vice President Nixon has already been here, as has Rep. Gerald Ford, the ranking Republican in the House of Representatives, on behalf of the men on the Wisconsin GOP slate. No doubt Wisconsin would again hear the mellifluous fortissimo of Sen. Everett Dirksen, who has graced Wisconsin rallies so many times before, except that he is now confined to a Washington hospital.

Probably the essential reasoning is that the handshaking and the autograph signing and the perfunctory if melodious talks of the brothers Kennedy is valuable for the local Democrats for what is known in the political trade as "exposure." They are audience builders. They will attract voters who would not be likely to turn out to hear Pat Lucey or John Race or Lynn Staibaum or the others on their own initiative.

They generate news pictures and news copy, and the local aspirants are the supposed legatees. They tend to infuse a spirit and an enthusiasm in the campaign rally which is difficult if not impossible to arrange with the too-familiar local talent, and in a season of less than sensitive issues.

JOB MANAGER

The pragmatic critic may conclude also that such a man as Mr. O'Brien, the postmaster general, was sought not entirely because of his oratorical prowess but because he happens to hold one of the important patronage dispensing jobs in the national government. Democratic rallies and fund-raising dinners, in the nature of contemporary politics and its exorbitant expenditure demands, tend to rely fundamentally upon patronage job-holders or the candidates for patronage jobs. Who could be expected to draw more notice from them or could expect them to turn out in larger numbers than the head of the Post Office Department who is the greatest job dispenser of them all?

Yet the tendentious might object that Mr. O'Brien, for all of his personal magnetism and other qualities, has some drawbacks.

He might be asked, in the press conference which his aides will inevitably arrange, whether his time could not be spent more fruitfully in supervising the delivery of the mail — which to the naked eye of the consumer now leaves something to be desired.

How Strong Do You Want Government?

BY SYDNEY J. HARRIS
My friend, J. Hawley Smoot, settled himself more comfortably in his leather club chair and muttered, not for the first time, "Too much government. We mustn't let the government get so strong and powerful. It's a menace to our liberties."

Harris

"Quite right," I agreed. "It worries me the way the government is shaping the whole economy for our war effort in Viet Nam."

"I don't mean that," said Smoot. "Have to do that, you know. Got to beat down those bloody Chinese, no matter what the cost, eh?"

"Well, then," I ventured. "You must like the Supreme Court decisions which clip the government's wings about questioning and holding suspects."

"Hell, no." "We need tougher laws than we have. Can't let those beastly criminals get off so easily. Have to support our police forces to the limit, not handcuff them."

"I see your point," I nodded. "But certainly we have to see to it that the government allows dissent and demonstrations for people who are peacefully petitioning for a redress of their grievances?"

"Bunch of damned Reds and trouble-makers," he growled. "The government ought to step in and crack a few more heads, show those dirty beatniks we mean business."

"Then there's all this labor trouble," I went on. "Strikes that really hurt the public and tie up the whole economy for weeks or months. But I suppose that's the price we have to pay for the kind of weak government you like."

"Pah," he snorted. "The country shouldn't allow those things. We ought to force those labor blighters to negotiate. Get an injunction. Haul them into the courts. Show them they can't thumb their noses at the rest of us, even if we have to call out the National Guard."

"And what about the college students," I inquired, "isn't it inspiring that they care enough about what's going on in the country to take political action on the campus and make their voices heard in opposition to such government measures as the draft and so on?"

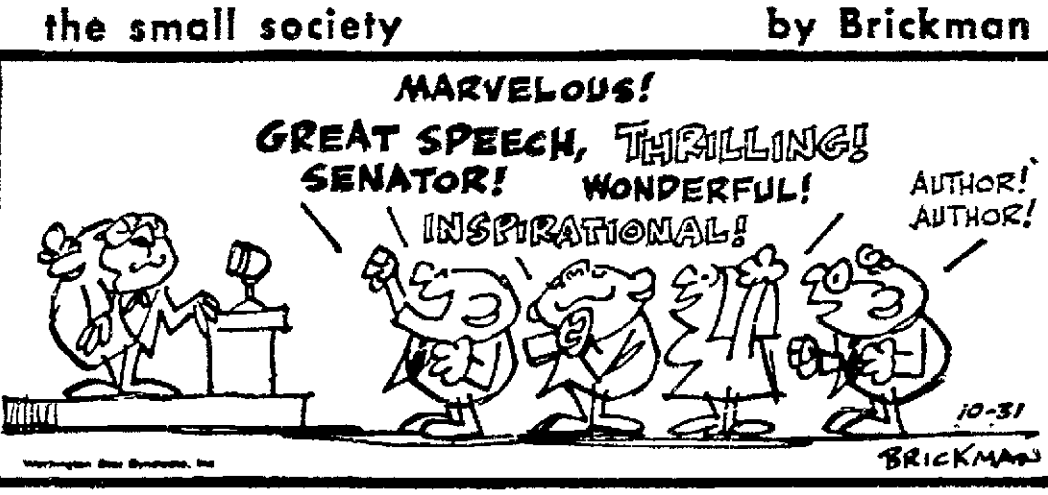

"Dirty yellow-bellies," he roared. "If I had my way, we'd toss the whole bunch in jail and throw away the keys. Put the militia in charge of every campus, and draft all the loud-mouths. This damned administration is coddling those punks instead of leaning hard on them."

"Well, you certainly have thought things out, carefully," I nodded, taking my leave. "There's no doubt in my mind that we have too much government. And I'm glad to know there are men like you around who are battling so valiantly against it. With your clear-cut ideas about our liberties, you can't help but win in the end."

Reagan Seen As Winner in California

Movie Actor Certain To Get Big Vote in Los Angeles Area

BY ROWLAND EVANS AND ROBERT NOVAK

LOS ANGELES, Calif. — Despite a startling number of undecided voters at this late stage in the campaign, movie actor Ronald Reagan now looks like a shoe-in to end eight years of Democratic rule under Edmund G. (Pat) Brown.

The last state-wide poll by the respected Los Angeles Times pollster, Don Muchmore, won't be finished until two days before the election. But a privately-circulated voter sample just completed in huge, sprawling Los Angeles County (containing about 40 per cent of the entire voting population of the state) now gives Reagan an outright 47 per cent against Brown's 32 per cent, with the undecideds totalling slightly better than 20 per cent.

Further, if those among the undecided who are now leaning to one candidate or the other are cranked into the equation, Reagan leads Brown by 52 to 37 per cent.

If these figures are even close to reality on election day, his conservative convictions. He Reagan could win by at least 600,000 — a margin that would immediately catapult him into, at a press conference last the 1968 presidential picture on Wednesday, for example. Rea-matter how much he protests, gan smiled coyly and doubted Conceivably, of course, the there was such a thing. Asked large undecided vote could about lack of experience, he swing to affable, colorless Pat recited his long record as a Brown at the last moment. But union leader in the film industry, this possibility is largely dis-and the fact that he is on a counted within the Brown camp couple of college boards of himself.

"Twenty per cent is the back-lash vote," confides one of brilliant political managers. Stu Brown's strategists. The strength of this back-lash canons from left to right are defies precise measurement, but maneuvering for position to one incident reveals its power, influence Reagan after the Just before publication of a election. The course of this state-wide poll in late Septem-fascinating back-stage maneuver, the San Francisco riots vering must await another broke out. The poll was quietly column, scrapped and the sample was:

repeated to take the riots into account. The second poll showed that Brown had fallen six points over that period of only a few days — a direct reaction to the riots.

What's more, the effect of the San Francisco disturbance was felt not so much in northern California. Brown's presumed stronghold, as in Los Angeles County. A similar Brown decline immediately followed the second 'racial disturbance — this one in the Oakland area in mid-October — that has broken out during the campaign.

This, then, is the single greatest obstacle to Brown's third-term ambition, and wrap-ped into it are all those collateral issues that Reagan so skillfully exploits — the cost of state welfare programs, the growing unhappiness with big government in Washington and violence in the streets. Taken together with Brown's lack of charisma and his tired, old-shoe quality, the package holds disaster for Brown on election day, and the greatest promise for right-wing Republicanism any where in the country.

Brown himself seems powerless to change this recipe. Having wanted precious months trying to demolish Reagan as a far-right extremist, Brown is now concentrating on what is known as "the experience issue". Without question, lack of political experience is Reagan's major handicap as he bids for power to run a state whose gross national product is exceeded by only eight countries in the world. But it's too late to build that issue.

Thus, Brown's only chance is Reagan himself — a serious mistake by Reagan that Brown could exploit. But the chance of that happening fades every day as Reagan continues to dish out his bland diet of political suet, smile prettily from the rostrum and tell pleasant little jokes that please the crowd.

Reagan, in short, is running for governor not on a hard-hitting program in keeping with to reality on election day, his conservative convictions. He Reagan could win by at least 600,000 — a margin that would immediately catapult him into, at a press conference last the 1968 presidential picture on Wednesday, for example. ## Have Fun at Parties Play the Memory Game

BY CAPPY DICK

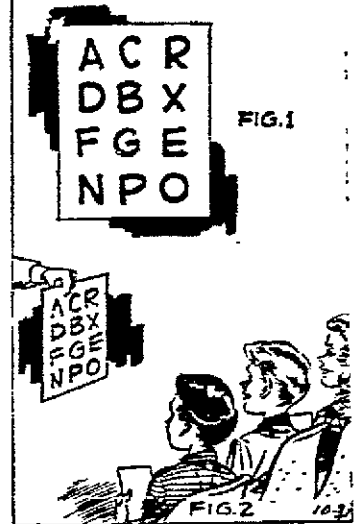

The memory stunt described today is for use at a party. It is a test of the players' ability to recall the colors they see and to associate those colors with the correct letters of the alphabet.

To prepare for the game, make a chart bearing 12 letters as shown in Figure 1. The chart may be as big as you wish to make it. Use cardboard that will be easy to hold in front of the players for exactly one minute as in Figure 2.

Use a different color of crayon or paint in printing each letter.

Give each player a pencil and a piece of paper. Tell the guests you are going to hold up the chart to show them the colored letters and that they are to remember as many of the letters and their colors as possible.

After holding the chart in full view for one minute, place it face-down on the floor. Then ask the guests to write on their papers the color of each letter as you call them off. For example, you will say, "What color was 'A'?" When the guests have done their best to remember, and, with no whispering or comparing of notes, have written their answers on their papers, ask, "What color was 'C'?" and so on all the way through the letters.

A guest wins 10 points for every letter he is found to have described correctly. A perfect score will be 120. An average score will be 20. This game is a toughie!

control in Washington, insisted that there is "one way" to characterize President Johnson and his administration. "It is that he believes in local solutions to local problems."

The postmaster general, in a speech scheduled for the dedication of the Neenah and Menasha post offices today, said the Post Office Department, to meet the growing strain of increased mail, is moving into a "massive program" of mechanized mail handling.

O'Brien said 50 billion pieces of mail are being handled this year, and that the numbers show no sign of leveling.

"Postal research, hitherto a stepchild, has at last been recognized as the seed-bed of future progress," he said, "and for the first time in the history of the Post Office Department, we have an assistant postmaster general for research and engineering."

O'Brien termed Rep John R. O'Connell, who is fighting to retain his Sixth District seat, as his "friend and very effective congressman."

Oshkosh Remarks At a civic luncheon in Oshkosh, O'Brien, in prepared remarks said that during the last 67 months of Democratic administration, wages and salaries rose 47 per cent while prices rose only 9 per cent.

He said that in the previous Republican administration, prices rose 11 per cent while wages and salaries went up only 29 per cent.

O'Brien denied that prices have recently taken a "terrific upward spurt."

"The facts are that over the 12-month period ending in the most recent accounting period, consumer prices rose 2.5 per cent," he said. "This compares with an average increase of 2.6 per cent a year over the whole postwar period; the 8.3 per cent increase in the nine-month period from June, 1950, to March, 1951, and the 3.7 per cent a year increase for the two-year period from April, 1956, to April, 1958."

Officer Killed In Venezuela Revolt Try

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP) — One rebel officer was killed and another was captured as they tried to start a revolt at a National Guard school outside Caracas Sunday, the defense ministry announced.

It was the first reported rebellion of consequence against the 22-year-old administration of President Raul Leon.

Military spokesmen said the slain officer, Lt. Col. Clemente Pacheco Ochoa, had left the country in 1962 with a group of officers suspected of leftist activities. Unconfirmed reports said rightist supporters of former Dictator Marcos Perez Jimenez instigated the uprising.

Leaders of the Civic National Crusade, a small party that plans to run Perez Jimenez for president in 1968, were reported being sought for questioning. The government blames the Crusade for several recent disturbances, including an attempted general strike to protest Perez Jimenez' imprisonment on embezzlement charges. Leon, the first constitutionally elected leader to succeed another elected president since Venezuela became independent in 1859, has formed a coalition with labor and peasant support and has carried out a land reform program.

Housewives Claim to Find 'Tidy Profits'

Women Reply to Food Retailers' 1 Per Cent Figure

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Housewives who are organizing boycotts of grocery stores in Wisconsin say they are uncovering indications that some stores are reaping some today profits by juggling food prices.

The women's price observations Sunday were in reply to a statement from the metropolitan Milwaukee Association of Commerce which contended grocers are not to blame for rising food prices, and that the average supermarket realizes only 40 cents profit on a $30 sack of groceries.

Mrs. Gayle Ouellette, leader of a group of Greenfield boycott promoters, said a survey showed a store to be selling a certain brand of cheese for 14 cents more than it could be purchased at two other outlets in the same chain of stores.

"In this case," she said, "the store would make 28 cents on two boxes of two-pound cheese."

Studies, she insisted, show that we housewives have some very legitimate gripes.

Women organized limited picketing last week in Grafton and Thiensville while similar activities were being considered by women in Waukesha, Greenfield and Greendale.

Mrs. Gordon Phillips, spokesman for the Grafton pickets, said her group is similarly preparing a reply to the association's argument concerning grocery profits.

Americans Flee Prison In Brazil

Sexton's B26 plane to search for the diamond, which was sold to Hippocrates Basiles Takapoulos, 34, who operates a bar in a Brasilia suburb.

Truhill said that Krue's go-between in trying to obtain the airplane "apparently double-crossed everybody." He identified the go-between as Paulo Leite, an import-export merchant who later was arrested along with Takapoulos and Juan Barbosa Sobrinho, alleged finder of the diamond.

Truhill said his knowledge of the diamond intrigue came from a man he knew as Delgado Assuncao, a deputy of Krue's.

Luis Bronzeado, member of Brazil's Chamber of Deputies, accused Krue of being "the only man responsible" for conspiracy, kidnapping and torture in the 007 case.

The three Americans were convicted of smuggling tantallite ore from Brazil. Tantallite is valuable as a hardening agent in heat shields for space vehicles. They were sentenced to three years in jail.

50,000 Combat Troops The United States has 50,000 combat troops on the 151-mile armistice line along with 610,000 Koreans.

South Korean President Chung Hee Park, who has sent 45,000 troops to Viet Nam, had waiting a variety of requests for aid, including $300 million for development projects, a guarantee of at least $200 million a year to support the South Korean army, and more orders for South Korean manufacturers to supply the forces in Viet Nam.

The vast outpouring of Koreans came as Johnson entered the last stage of his 17-day, 31,000-mile journey around the eastern rim of Communist China. He leaves for Washington Wednesday, stopping en route for nearly 12 hours in Anchorage, Alaska.

FACSIMILE BALLOT NOTICE

GENERAL and REFERENDUM ELECTIONS— NOVEMBER 8, 1966

OFFICIAL BALLOT

STATE OF WISCONSIN } SS OUTAGAMIE COUNTY } TO THE ELECTORS OF OUTAGAMIE COUNTY:

Notice is hereby given that an Election is to be held in the several towns, wards, villages and election precincts in the county of Outagamie on the 8th day of November, 1966, at which the officers named below are to be chosen. The names of the candidates for each office to be voted for, whose nominations have been certified to or filed in this office, are given under the title of the office and under the appropriate party or other designation, each in its proper column, in the sample ballot below.

INFORMATION TO VOTERS

The following instructions are given for the information and guidance of voters:

A voter upon entering the polling place and giving his name and residence, will receive a ballot from the ballot clerk which must have indorsed thereon the names or initials of both ballot clerks, and no other ballot can be used. Upon receiving his ballot, the voter must retire alone to a booth or compartment and prepare the same for voting. A ballot clerk may inform the voter as to the proper manner of marking a ballot but he must not advise or indicate in any manner whom to vote for.

If the voter wishes to vote for all the candidates nominated by any party he shall make a cross or other mark under the party designation printed at the top of the ballot in the circle made for that purpose. A ballot so marked and having no other mark will be counted for all the candidates of that party in the column underneath, unless the names of some of the candidates of the party have been erased or a name shall be written in or a cross mark be placed in the square at the right of the name or names of candidates in another column. If the voter does not wish to vote for all the candidates nominated by one party, he shall mark his ballot by making a cross or mark in the square at the right of the name of the candidate for whom he intends to vote, or by inserting or writing in the name of the candidate.

A voter may vote upon a question submitted to a vote of the people by making a cross (X) or mark in the square at the right of the answer which he intends to give.

The ballot should not be marked in any other manner. If the ballot be soiled, it must be returned to the ballot clerk, who must issue another in its stead, but not more than three in all shall be issued to any one voter. Five minutes' time is allowed in booth to mark ballot. Unofficial ballots or memoranda to assist the voter in marking his ballot can be taken into the booth, and may be used to copy from. The ballot must not be shown so that any person can see how it has been marked by the voter.

After it is marked it should be folded so that the inside cannot be seen, but so that the printed indorsements and signatures of the ballot clerks on the outside may be seen. Then the voter should pass out of the booth or compartment, give his name to the inspector in charge of the ballot box, hand him his ballot to be placed in the box, and pass out of the voting place.

A voter, who declares to the presiding officer that he is unable to read, or that by reason of physical disability he is unable to mark his ballot, can have assistance of 2 election officers in marking same, to be chosen by the voter; and if he declares that he is visually handicapped, he may have anyone assist him in marking his ballot or operating a voting machine. The presiding officer may administer on oath in his discretion, as to such person's disability.

Official Referendum Ballot

If you desire to vote for the question, make a cross (X) or other mark in the square after the word "yes," underneath such question; if you desire to vote against the question, make a cross (X) or other mark in the square after the word "no," underneath such question.

History Study
May Help Find True De Gaulle

Motivation Seems To Lie in Desire To be Mediator

By ENDRE MARTON
WASHINGTON (AP) — To understand Charles de Gaulle, you should leaf back through history. It may help, though you may not understand him even then.

This is the advice one gets from Washington policymakers trying to explain the French president's press conference statement last Friday. What he said was hardly new, but the way he said it was more impatient, more acid than before. Students of history dismiss the simplification that whatever De Gaulle says or does, his motive is to spite his allies. His motive is much nobler: for decades he tried to play the part of a mediator between East and West, the two blocs superior to France in power, but inferior, he believes, in historical experience.

Holding Too Fast
The younger generation cautions against the myth of historical experience. Undersecretary of State Nicholas Katzenbach said in a speech the other day that there is danger in "holding too fast to the lessons of experience and believing too certainly that they were right." De Gaulle is 75, Katzenbach 44.

De Gaulle said the United States cannot win the war in Viet Nam. But in De Gaulle's vocabulary there is only one kind of victory: The annihilation of the enemy. He appears not to grasp that the United States has no such ambition in Viet Nam.

Those annoyed by him today should find comfort in reading records of the war years when President Franklin D. Roosevelt and British Prime Minister Winston Churchill were frustrated by De Gaulle's dreams of grandeur for himself and his country.

De Gaulle Impossible
"De Gaulle is impossible," Churchill complained to Secretary of State Cordell Hull in May, 1943. "I am completely disgusted by him."

"De Gaulle may be a good man, but he has a Messianic complex," wrote Roosevelt to Churchill in May, 1943. One month later he added: "I am fed up with De Gaulle. I agree with you that the time has come for us to part company with him."

"It is impossible to trust De Gaulle's friendship," replied Churchill in June. But, he advised, "We cannot forget that he joined us in the darkest hours and that he tried to carry on the struggle against the Germans. The man is impossible, but one must take those facts into account."

De Gaulle was aware of what his partners thought of him; therefore he always had to be on the alert. He was either defensive or offensive and seldom agreed with either of them. He did not change in this respect.

Living Symbol
Yet even his bitter critics grudgingly accept him as the living symbol of French greatness. He appeared in French history at a time when France was undergoing a fearsome process of aging and he twice pulled the country back onto its feet.

De Gaulle is an aging man. American policy planners ask: Is the regime founded by the general a Gaullist one or merely De Gaulle's? Is Gaullism the work of one man, or is it a coherent doctrine which will survive him?

Manitowoc Cemetery
Not Exempt

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Manitowoc, Wis., cemetery, which had registered as a nonprofit group, owes $27,516 in federal income taxes and penalties, the Robert Petitjean, received 20 percent of the purchase price of the federal tax court ruled.

The decision could affect the tax exempt status of other cemeteries in Wisconsin. The Knollwood Memorial Gardens Cemetery association was ordered, by the court, to pay $22,013 in federal income taxes and interest for the fiscal years 1959 through 1961. Also, the exempt cemetery was ordered to pay $5,503 in penalties for failure to file corporate tax returns for those years.

According to the tax court decision, the cemetery owed the money because of an agreement it had with the president and general manager of the cemetery association under which the president, Green Bay Attorney Charles Heston, received 20 percent of the purchase price of each lot sold.

The court ruled, that in effect, the 20 percent payment was profit, and therefore subject to federal income tax.

Under Wisconsin laws, cemetery associations must be nonprofit associations and, therefore, are tax

UW Hecklers
Refuse Vote Against Leaders

MADISON (AP)—The University of Wisconsin student group blamed for heckling which interrupted a speech by Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., refused Sunday to approve a vote of "no confidence" against its leadership.

Members of the Committee to End the War in Viet Nam requested the vote, but were turned down 128-13 after a three-hour debate.

The proposed vote had been aimed at Robin David, committee president whom Kennedy called to the speaker's stand in an effort to calm demonstrators during Kennedy's address on the campus Thursday. "What we did was to try to put that element which supports the war on the spot," David said. "My only regret was that we did not succeed."

The Mercedes-Benz 250S— the $6400 car that doesn't wallow, waddle, sway, sag or butter up your ego

This new Mercedes-Benz sedan gives you all the roominess of other $6400 cars—without an ounce of fat. You ride on a fully independent suspension, stop with 4-wheel disc brakes. Result: the 250S outpaces the $6400 fat cats as an athlete outpaces a gang of fat men. Read more about this superbly engineered machine, built for driving.

Excess size and weight in a car may tickle your vanity, but they sabotage performance.

The practical-minded men who designed the Mercedes-Benz 250S refused to pad this machine with needless bulk. It weighs a ton less than its overweight rivals. It's two feet shorter overall.

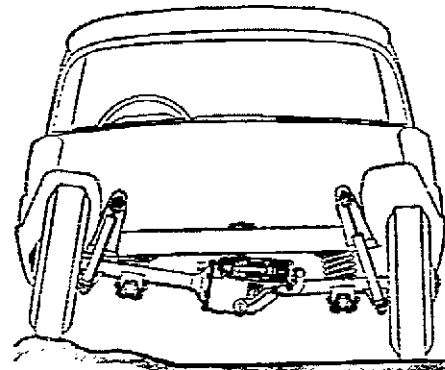

Yet inside, five adults find plentiful seating room. More rear seat hiproom than the newest Rolls-Royce. More headroom than a Lincoln Continental. More shoulder room than an Oldsmobile Toronado.

Four secrets: Narrower doors, side windows that curve into the roof, recessed floor pan — and a ban on styling that cuts passenger space.

Fundamentals, not gimmicks

You invest in superior engineering with the 250S, not trivial doodads.

For example, you ride on a suspension that makes most other $6400 sedans seem like museum pieces. It's fully independent; the rear axle is split into two halves to blot up bumps and grip the road as no conventional "solid rear axle" can.

Mercedes-Benz swing axle pivots in center, lets rear wheels flex separately over bumps.

Tenacious road holding and taut, wallow-free ride are musts for European driving. As you'll find on curves, country lanes and in city traffic, they translate beautifully to American conditions.

Note: An ingenious hydropneumatic compensating spring automatically pumps up to keep the 250S riding level, regardless of loads. Even if you add 600 pounds to the trunk, the stern won't sink.

Stopping made easy

Large 14-inch wheels let Mercedes-Benz engineers fit large brakes to the 250S.

And remarkable brakes they are — 10.8-inch discs in front, 11-inch discs at rear, and a total of 430 square inches of swept brake area.

"The car has enormous stopping power," says Car and Driver Magazine. And it stays enormous—even after repeated panic stops. A small valve in the 250S brake system balances front and rear braking forces to prevent rear wheel lockup in sudden hard stops.

Not a blunderbuss

Since the 250S isn't an oversized behemoth, it doesn't need an oversized behemoth of an engine to propel it.

At that, the overhead camshaft 6-cylinder engine up front is hardly puny; you can purr along at over 100 mph as long as it's legal.

"There is as little inside noise at 100 mph as at a standstill," comments New York Herald Tribune columnist, Leo Levine.

This engine is one of the most exquisitely well built machines of its kind in the world. After hours of patient hand assembly, it undergoes a patient hour of all-out testing on a special stand—with oil changed 62 times to flush away debris.

Built to last

You can reasonably expect years of uncomplaining service from the 250S.

Rattles are squelched by a body welded at 10,000 points. Rust is thwarted with 24 lbs. of primer paint and 24 lbs. of a thick, plasticized permanent undercoat. And every 250S body spends 3 hours being hammered, filed, sanded and buffed before painting.

"One is automatically impressed with the obvious high quality of every single switch, gauge, control, carpet, and piece of upholstery," comments Car and Driver on the 250S interior. "The seats are as good as any in the world." A three-way adjustment raises, lowers or tilts the front seats to any desired position—even horizontal, for cat-naps.

Safety an obligation

Mercedes-Benz considers safety a moral obligation, not a public relations problem. Some results of this view:

The 250S body itself is a safety-feature. The center section where you ride is rigid. Front and rear ends are designed to crumple on violent impact and absorb shock (the less shock you receive, the less threat of serious injury).

Possible interior hazards have been padded, recessed, or made of pliable material such as rubber. The steering wheel hub is a big padded plate. The instrument panel is padded to protect your head and your knees. The rearview mirror, spring-mounted in its socket, snaps away if struck.

These features and many more are found in all Mercedes-Benz cars—and were there long before the current "safety controversy."

Upbeat ending: The $6400 price includes power-assisted steering and brakes and automatic transmission. A simplified 250S can be yours for $5818.

Designed around its occupants and not a "styling theme," the new Mercedes-Benz 250S sedan provides plentiful room for five—and 87% unobstructed visibility for the driver. A refreshingly sane car. Clip the coupon for a free brochure.

Snappin' crisp,
seaside breeze!

New Kroger Saltines:
guaranteed
fine as the best and

Because the Kroger bakers roll 'em so thin, our Kroger Saltines whiz through the oven in just minutes. So none of their flavor gets baked out—and all of the crispness gets locked in!

Seconds later, the crackers are stacked one by one and heat-sealed in separate sleeves of moisture-proof film. Four stacks to a carton. No wonder Kroger Saltines carry oven-fresh aroma right through to your table! No wonder they stay snappin' crisp from first nibble to last handful.

A soupbowl never had such fresh companions! And did you know that there are up to 17 extra Kroger Saltines per pound? Ever since we gave up baking fat crackers!
